Arizona · written against 46-8502 (R07/25), issued under A.R.S. 28-2058

/forms/arizona/46-8502-sold-notice/

Arizona's release of liability, and the one form on this list written for the seller alone. It tells MVD the vehicle has left you, and the deadline printed on it is ten days. Filing it is free, takes about a minute online, and is the difference between a stranger's parking ticket being their problem and it being yours.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank 46-8502 from the Arizona Department of Transportation, Motor Vehicle Division at <https://apps.azdot.gov/files/mvd/mvd-forms-lib/46-8502.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Vehicle Identification Number	The full seventeen characters, from the title or from AZ MVD Now. Watch out: The VIN is what MVD matches on. A plate number alone will not find the record if the plate has already been moved to another car.
2	YOU	Year, Make and Plate Number	The plate that was on the vehicle when it left you. Watch out: Give the plate even though you are keeping it. It is how the notice ties to the registration you may be about to claim a credit against.
3	YOU	Buyer/Lessor Name	The buyer's full name - first, middle, last and suffix. Watch out: Take it from their driver licence at the time of sale, not from the advert reply. A name you cannot spell is a notice MVD cannot act on.
4	YOU	Date Sold	The day the buyer took possession. Watch out: This is the day the ten-day clock started, and it is also the date that has to match the sale date on the title and on the buyer's application.
5	YOU	The buyer's address	Street, city, state and ZIP for the new keeper. Watch out: Write down what is on their licence at the time. If they are moving next week, that is their problem to update with MVD once the title is in their name.
6	YOU	Seller/Lessee Name and address	Your name and address, as MVD holds them on the record. Watch out: If your address on the record is three houses ago, fix it in the same sitting. Anything MVD sends about this vehicle goes to the address it has.
7	YOU	Seller/Lessee Signature and Date	Sign and date it. There is no notary block and nobody has to witness it. Watch out: Then take the plate off the car if you have not already. The instruction sits directly under the signature line for a reason.

What gets this one rejected

- Treating it as the transfer. The form says so itself: to transfer ownership, you must also complete the transfer information on the back of the Certificate of Title and give it to the new owner.
- Filing it late. Ten days is printed in the first paragraph, and every day past it is a day MVD's records still name you as the owner.
- Leaving the buyer's address blank because you never asked for it. The whole value of the notice is that it names somebody else.
- Filing it before the buyer actually has the car. A sold notice on a vehicle you still hold blocks eTitle Transfer, which will not run on a vehicle with an existing Sold Notice.
- Assuming it cancels your registration. It does not, and it does not refund anything either - the registration credit is a separate request.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
