How to fill out 48-3302 — Plate Release

Arizona · written against 48-3302 (R05/25), issued under A.R.S. 28-2058 and 28-2356

</forms/arizona/48-3302-plate-release/>

The form for the plate you have just taken off the car. It does three separate jobs: it declares that a plate was lost, destroyed or stolen; it releases a personalised plate format so the letters can be issued to somebody else; and it lets a lessor release a plate and its credited fees to the lessee. ADOT also knows it by a second name, the affidavit of plate destruction.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank 48-3302 from the Arizona Department of Transportation, Motor Vehicle Division at <https://apps.azdot.gov/files/mvd/mvd-forms-lib/48-3302.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Registered Plate Owner	Your name as MVD holds it against the plate, with a mailing address underneath. Watch out: The plate is registered to a person, not to a car. If the plate is in a joint name, use the name on the registration document rather than whichever of you is filling the form in.
2	YOU	Plate Number	The plate being released, one character per box. Watch out: Copy it from the plate in your hand, not from the registration. If they disagree, that is a bigger conversation than this form.
3	YOU	Vehicle Identification Number	The last vehicle the plate was on, one character per box, with the 5th, 10th and 17th positions marked above the comb. Watch out: Use those three markers as a check as you write. If your 17th character does not land in the last box, you have dropped or doubled one.
4	YOU	Year, Make, Model	The vehicle the plate came off. Watch out: This is how MVD confirms the plate and the VIN belong together. A mismatch here reads as a plate that was never on that car.
5	YOU	Personalized Plate Release	Tick it to give up a personalised combination so it can be issued to somebody else. Watch out: Only tick this if you genuinely want to lose the letters. A standard plate does not need it, and a personalised one you might want again certainly does not.
6	YOU	The lessor release and Lessee Name	For a leasing company handing a plate and its credited fees to the person who leased the vehicle. Watch out: A private seller leaves both of these empty. They exist because on an Arizona lease the plate and the fees can belong to the lessee rather than to the lessor.
7	YOU	Signature, Date and Phone Number	Sign, date and give a number MVD can reach you on. Watch out: Date it inside the thirty days the statute allows. The date on this form is the date that proves you did.

What gets this one rejected

- Ticking neither box. The form's own instruction is to select the option or options that best apply, and an unmarked form does not say what you want done.
- Using it to claim money. The line across the top sends you elsewhere: to request a plate refund visit AZMVDNow.gov.
- A plate number that does not match the vehicle. The VIN block is headed with the last vehicle the plate was assigned to, and MVD matches the two.
- A lessee name with no lessor box ticked, or the reverse. The two go together and neither works alone.
- Filing it more than thirty days after the sale. A.R.S. 28-2058(A)(1)(c) gives thirty days to transfer, surrender or swear to the destruction of a plate.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
