Colorado · written against DR 0070 (10/02/12), issued under C.R.S. 39-26-102(7)(a)

A Taxpayer Service Division form rather than a Division of Motor Vehicles one, and it exists for the moment a county clerk does not believe the number in front of them. One page, two blocks - the purchaser and who they purchased from - and a declaration that the price shown was the total price paid and that there were no other considerations in this matter.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank DR 0070 from the Colorado Department of Revenue, Division of Motor Vehicles at https://dmv.colorado.gov/sites/dmv/files/documents/DR0070_2012.pdf — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	BUYER	Name of Purchaser and address block	The buyer's name, street address, telephone, city, state and ZIP. Watch out: This is filled in by the person taking title. A seller handed a blank one has been handed somebody else's form.
2	BUYER	The vehicle	Make, year, body type and vehicle identification number, on two lines. Watch out: Body type here means what the certificate calls it - sport utility, station wagon, pickup - not what the manufacturer's brochure called it.
3	BUYER	Purchase Price and Date of Purchase	The number and the day, with the printed definition sitting under them. Watch out: The date should be the date of sale written into the assignment. Two different dates on two documents about one handover is exactly what invites the further inquiries the declaration mentions.
4	BUYER	Purchased From	The seller's name, address and telephone number in the second block. Watch out: Worth a seller checking before it is filed. This is the number the department will ring if it wants to test the price, and a wrong one looks like evasion rather than a typo.
5	BUYER	Purchaser's Signature and Date	One signature and one date, under the declaration. Watch out: Read the paragraph above the line first. It swears that this was the total price paid and that there were no other considerations, which is a sentence with edges.

What gets this one rejected

- A seller signing it. There is one signature line and it is the purchaser's; the seller's role here is to be named and, potentially, telephoned.
- A price that contradicts the back of the title. This statement is read against the assignment, and the point of the exercise is that they agree.
- Consideration left out. The declaration says there were no other considerations, so a trade, a debt written off or work done in part payment has to be reflected in the number.
- A blank Purchased From block. The department reserves the right to make further inquiries from the selling party, which it cannot do without a name and a telephone number.
- Used as a bill of sale. It records a price for tax purposes and proves nothing about who owned the vehicle or when possession changed.
- Filed to support a gift. A transfer with no price is a different conversation with the county, not a statement that the price was nothing.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
