A nine-line survivor from a Colorado that notarised its titles. The subtitle printed under the heading still reads In lieu of Notarization of Colorado title, and the sentence under that says the form exempts notarization requirement ONLY; all sellers must sign the Colorado title in addition to this form. The section of statute governing a transfer was amended in its entirety with effect from 8 August 2005 and now asks a seller to affirm the sale with a written declaration made under the penalties of perjury in the second degree - the sentence printed on the back of every certificate issued since. What survives is the one job this sheet still does cleanly: a sworn statement, from up to two sellers, that ownership of a described vehicle has been transferred to a named new owner.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank DR 2445 from the Colorado Department of Revenue, Division of Motor Vehicles at <https://dmv.colorado.gov/sites/dmv/files/DR2445.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Name of New Owner(s)	The buyer, spelled the way they will be spelled on the new certificate. Watch out: This is the same name that goes into the Buyer's Hand Printed Name field on the back of the title. If the two sheets disagree, the sworn statement is the one that looks wrong.
2	YOU	Address of New Owner	One line, which has to hold street, city, state and ZIP. Watch out: There is no room to be generous. Write the address the buyer will register at, because that is the one the county is matching.
3	YOU	The vehicle and the title number	Vehicle identification number, year, make and the title number from the face of the certificate. Watch out: Only the title number ties this sheet to a document. A statement about a year and a make could be about any of several cars.
4	YOU	Name of Seller(s)	Printed, matching the face of the certificate, and covering both owners where two are named. Watch out: Two owners go on one line here, separated by the word and, and then take a signature row each below.
5	YOU	Signature of Seller (1) and Date	A signature and a date under the certification at the top of the sheet. Watch out: The date is the date of the transfer, not the date the county asked you for the form. Those are often weeks apart and the transfer date is the one that matters.
6	YOU	Signature of Seller (2) and Date	The second row, used only where the certificate was issued to two owners. Watch out: Leave it empty on a single-owner title rather than filling it with a witness or a spouse who is not on the certificate.

What gets this one rejected

- Used instead of signing the certificate. The line under the subtitle says all sellers must sign the Colorado title in addition to this form, in those words.
- One signature where the face of the certificate names two owners. The form gives two signature rows because Colorado expects both.
- A title number left blank. Every other field describes a vehicle; the title number is the only one that identifies the document.
- Filed to correct something. It states that a transfer happened - it does not amend a reading, a price or a name.
- Expecting it to explain itself to a clerk. It is dated 2005 and most counter staff will not have seen one this year; ring the county before you build a packet around it.
