Connecticut · written against A-83 (Rev 6-2008), issued under Conn. Gen. Stat. s. 45a-175(b) for the accounting provision, executed as an acknowledged instrument before a notary public, justice of the peace or commissioner of the Superior Court

The only document in the Connecticut seller's set that needs anybody else in the room. If you cannot be at the DMV - or cannot sign the paperwork yourself - this appoints somebody who can, for motor vehicle registration and title business and for nothing else. It takes your signature, two witnesses and an officer authorised to take acknowledgments, and it is returned to you rather than kept by the department.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank A-83 from the Connecticut Department of Motor Vehicles at <https://portal.ct.gov/-/media/DMV/20/29/A83pdf.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Print your full name	The principal. Printed above the line that reads Print your full name above. Watch out: Use the name that appears on the title and the registration. This document has to match the record it will be used against.
2	YOU	Print the full name of your agent	One named person. The grant will not stretch to anybody else. Watch out: Naming a dealership rather than a person is a common mistake. The form appoints an attorney-in-fact, and an attorney-in-fact is somebody who can sign.
3	YOU	The date in the witness clause	Day, month and year, on the line beginning IN WITNESS WHEREOF. Watch out: This date and the date in the acknowledgment block below should be the same day, because the acknowledgment is of a signature made in front of the officer.
4	YOU	The name in the acknowledgment block	Your name again, this time as the person who personally appeared before the officer taking the acknowledgment. Watch out: It has to be the same name as the principal at the top. The whole block is the officer's record that the person who signed is the person named.
5	OTHER	The acknowledgment date, and the four signatures around it	Day, month and year in the acknowledgment. Around them sit four printed rules with no boxes behind them - your signature marked (L.S.), two witness lines, and the officer's line above their commission expiry. Watch out: Do not sign at home. The clause reads attested and subscribed in the presence of the Principal and subsequent to the Principal subscribing same - you sign first, in front of the two witnesses and the officer. A notary public, a justice of the peace or a commissioner of the Superior Court will all do, and banks and law offices are the usual places to find one at short notice.

What gets this one rejected

- A signature with no witnesses. The form's note 1 requires your signature, the signature of two witnesses, and the signature of an officer authorized to take acknowledgments.
- A photocopy. Note 3 is explicit: this Special Power of Attorney, bearing original signatures must be shown and will be returned to you.
- A partially completed sheet. Note 1 begins: this form must be completed in its entirety.
- Using it for a driver's licence errand. Note 2 excludes it - the power does not authorize your agent to perform transactions related to your motor vehicle operator's license or identification card.
- Using one drawn in favour of a different agent. The grant is valid only for the express purposes stated and may not be used for any transaction involving any other person or party who is not named.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
