CASE NUMBER

The law in the State of Connecticut requires that all vehicles that are registered must maintain continuous insurance coverage. If you believe that your situation warrants further investigation and you have evidence to support that, please complete this form. On the form, all areas that apply to you must be completed, your signature must appear in the certification portion and any documents that you feel may be relevant to your case must be attached.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. If the plates have been canceled attach a copy of the plate receipt.
2. If the vehicle has been sold or junked, attach a copy of the title showing the assignment to the new owner and the date it occurred. If a non-titled vehicle, a copy of the Q-1 form showing the transfer to the new owner and the date it occurred must be attached.
3. If repossessed, a copy of the paperwork from the lienholder or marshal that identifies the vehicle showing the date they took it into their possession.
4. If the vehicle was donated to a charity a copy of the title or Q-1 (as above) showing the transfer to the charity and the date the vehicle was given to them.
5. If you have any other information or documentation that you believe is relevant to your case, please attach copies to the form and return it to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

How to fill out SR-101 — Disposition of Vehicle

Connecticut · written against SR-101 (New 8-2008), issued under Conn. Gen. Stat. s. 14-12b and s. 14-12g, mandatory security and the suspension of a registration for a lapse disposition-of-vehicle/](https://forms.connecticut/sr101-disposition-of-vehicle/)

The form for the letter that arrives after a sale you thought was finished. Connecticut's insurers report cancellations to the DMV, and a policy cancelled before the registration was terminated reads as a lapse on a live registration. The SR-101 is how a seller answers that: it tells the Insurance Compliance Unit what actually happened to the car, on what date, and to whom - and it names, in its own instructions, the documents that prove it.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank SR-101 from the Connecticut Department of Motor Vehicles at <https://portal.ct.gov/-/media/DMV/20/29/SR101pdf.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Name and Address of Applicant	Yours, as they appear on the notice. The case number goes in the box at the top of the sheet, copied from that notice. Watch out: Use the version of your name on the notice even if it is out of date, and mention the correction separately. Matching the file is what gets it read.
2	YOU	Vehicle Information: make, model, year, VIN	Four boxes identifying the car the case is about. Watch out: The VIN is the item the department reconciles against the insurer's report. A plate number alone is not enough where plates have moved between vehicles.
3	YOU	Plate Number on Vehicle	The registration the lapse was reported against. Watch out: If the plate has already been cancelled, this is the number printed on your plate disposition receipt - which is also the document instruction one tells you to attach.
4	YOU	Plates Canceled? and the date	YES or NO with a date, and the plate receipt attached. Watch out: This is the answer that decides the case. A YES with a date earlier than the insurance cancellation is the whole defence in two boxes.
5	YOU	SOLD, with the date and the buyer's name	One of four dispositions. Tick it, date it and name the person who took the car. Watch out: The date has to match the assignment on the title you are attaching. Two different sale dates on two documents is worse than one late one.
6	YOU	Date Insurance Canceled, insurer and policy number	The other end of the timeline, in the department's own three boxes. The certification and signature close the sheet below them. Watch out: Fill this in honestly even where it is unhelpful - the department already has the date from the insurer. And attach before you sign: a signed form posted without the plate receipt and the title copy is a case that closes against you for lack of evidence.

What gets this one rejected

- Sending the form with nothing attached. Its own instruction one is that if the plates have been canceled attach a copy of the plate receipt, and the form is an argument that needs evidence.
- A sale claim with no title copy. Instruction two: if the vehicle has been sold or junked, attach a copy of the title showing the assignment to the new owner and the date it occurred.
- A non-titled vehicle with no Q-1. The same instruction continues: if a non-titled vehicle, a copy of the Q-1 form showing the transfer to the new owner and the date it occurred must be attached.
- Dates that do not line up. If the insurance cancellation predates the sale, the form tells the department there was a lapse rather than that there was not.
- Using it instead of paying where there is nothing to argue. Where the lapse really happened, the route is the SR-37 consent agreement and the $200, not this sheet.

☐ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.

Read off SR-101 (New 8-2008) and the Connecticut Department of Motor Vehicles's own pages, current as of 2026-08-23. Plain-language help with a sellmycarhub.com form, not legal advice — where this and the agency differ, the agency governs.
