How to fill out HSMV 82092 — Reassignment Document for an Electronic Certificate of Title

Florida · written against HSMV 82092 (07/13), issued under section 319.225(7), Florida Statutes

The short version of the electronic reassignment, for a vehicle old enough that no mileage has to be disclosed. It exists because there is no paper certificate to write on and the sale still has to be recorded somewhere - so the seller and the buyer sign this at the counter instead.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank HSMV 82092 from the Florida Department of Highway Safety and Motor Vehicles at <https://www.flhsmv.gov/pdf/forms/82092.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	The vehicle description row	Year, make, body type, model and colour, across the top of section 1. Watch out: Check the year against the exemption before you go any further. A 2010 or older vehicle is exempt after ten years; a 2011 or newer one is not exempt for twenty, and this form is not available to it.
2	YOU	Certificate of title number and VIN	Both on the second row of the description block. Watch out: There is no paper certificate to copy the number off - that is why you are on this form - so get it from the record at the counter or from a registration document before you start.
3	YOU	The purchaser, printed	The buyer's name, and a co-purchaser's if two people are buying, in the certification block. Watch out: The paragraph above this line says three things at once: that you have an electronic title, that you have sold the vehicle, and that the buyer agrees to maintain the title electronically. That last one is the buyer's agreement, so ask them before you write their name under it.
4	YOU	Date of sale	The day possession passes. Watch out: Both of you have to be at the tax collector's office or licence plate agency for this transfer, and the form has to be completed and signed before the agency processes it. In practice the date of sale and the date of the visit are the same day.
5	YOU	Selling price	The price in the box after the printed dollar sign. Watch out: It is a statutory condition of the transfer, not a formality, and it is the same figure the buyer will be taxed on at the counter. An old cheap car is exactly the case where people are tempted to round it down.
6	YOU	Seller's signature, printed name and date	All three, on the first row of the certification block. A co-seller signs the row beneath only if the record names one. Watch out: Under penalties of perjury is printed directly above these rows. There is no notary on this form and no space pretending to want one, which makes Florida's position unusually easy to read here.
7	BUYER	Purchaser's signature, printed name and date	The buyer signs the row below yours. Watch out: They are signing to agree the title stays electronic. A buyer who wants paper can have it, but then this is the wrong form and the transfer runs on HSMV 82994 instead.
8	BUYER	The purchaser's licence number, date of birth, sex and address	Four boxes and a full address line, underneath the purchaser's signature row. Watch out: This block is why the buyer has to turn up with identification rather than sending a friend. The agency is building the new record from it, and it will be checked against the licence in their hand.

What gets this one rejected

- Using it for a car that still needs an odometer disclosure. The note in the middle of the form sends you to the longer reassignment supplement instead, and the department's procedure agrees.
- Signing it at home and posting it in. It is completed and signed before the agency processes the transfer, with the parties there.
- A buyer who wants a paper title. The certification says they agree to maintain the title electronically - if they do not, this is the wrong document.
- Assuming exempt means old. Check the model year against the twenty and ten year rules before you reach for this form rather than the other one.

☐ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
