How to fill out MV-1 — Motor Vehicle Title Application

Georgia · written against MV-1 (Rev 02/2024), issued under the Motor Vehicle Division, and filed at the county tag office where the applicant resides

/forms/georgia/mv-1-motor-vehicle-title-application/

The application the buyer files at a county tag office to move the title into their name and put a plate on the car. A seller never signs it, but half of section C is about you, and a buyer who cannot fill that half in correctly comes back to ask - so it is worth knowing what it asks before you hand the keys over.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank MV-1 from the Georgia Department of Revenue, Motor Vehicle Division at <https://dor.georgia.gov/document/document/mv-1-dor-motor-vehicle-title-tag-application-revised-10-30-2018/download?f=MV-1.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	BUYER	Section A, the vehicle	Vehicle ID, current title number and its state of issue, year, make, model, body style, colour, cylinders and fuel type - copied from the assigned certificate rather than from the car. Watch out: The current title number is on the front of the certificate you handed over. A buyer who cannot find it is looking at the wrong side of the document.
2	BUYER	Section A, county of residence	The Georgia county the applicant lives in, in the middle column of section A. Watch out: This is the county that decides where the application is filed and whether an emission inspection certificate is needed with it. District number sits below it and can be left to the tag office if unknown.
3	YOU	Section A, odometer exceptions	Three boxes - EXEMPT, Exceeds Mechanical Limits of Odometer, and Not the Actual Mileage - above the reading itself. Watch out: Whatever was declared on the back of the certificate has to be repeated here. This form has an EXEMPT box; the certificate does not, which is why an exempt vehicle carries the word written into the odometer space there and a tick here.
4	YOU	Section A, odometer reading and date purchased	The mileage at handover and the date of the sale. Watch out: Date purchased is the date the clock runs from for everything that follows, and it has to match the date of sale on the certificate exactly.
5	BUYER	Section B, number of owners and leasing	How many owners the vehicle is going into, whether it is leased, and whether an out-of-state business purchase was collected out of state. Watch out: Answering yes to leased means section D has to be completed as well. On an ordinary private purchase all three answers are the simple ones.
6	BUYER	Section B, owner 1	Full legal name, driver's licence number and issuing state, date of birth, e-mail, phone, address and mailing address. Watch out: Legal name as the licence has it. A nickname here and a full name on the certificate's purchaser line is a mismatch a clerk has to resolve before anything is issued.
7	BUYER	Section B, the signature	The applicant signs and dates under their own block. Every owner listed on the title has to sign. Watch out: The line above it is a felony certification, and it covers the address as well as the name. There is no notary on this form and no substitute for the signature.
8	YOU	Section C, seller information	Your full legal name or business name and address, and the Georgia county name if you are a Georgia seller. Watch out: Three lines and a county, and they come from you. A buyer who has already driven off with the car and no note of your address will be back.
9	BUYER	Section E, lienholders	Up to two rows of twelve-digit ELT identification number, name and address, with anything further attached. Watch out: Where the buyer is not financing, the block stays empty. Where they are, the lender's ELT number is something the lender supplies - it is not derivable from anything on the certificate.
10	YOU	Section F, attorney-in-fact	Name, mailing address, phone and e-mail, used only where someone is acting under a power of attorney. Watch out: The instruction is to attach the original power of attorney if the title is to be posted to the attorney-in-fact. A copy is not the original, and the Georgia power of attorney says so on its own face.

What gets this one rejected

- A missing signature. The instruction page says all owners listed on the title must sign this form, and both owner blocks carry their own signature line.
- Filing it in the wrong county. The form has to be submitted to the county tag office in the county where the applicant resides, or to the Department where that applies.
- Leaving the county of residence blank in section A. It is what routes the application and what decides whether the emissions programme applies.
- Guessing the district number. If the applicant does not know which district they live in, the instruction is to check with the county tag office rather than to invent one.
- Treating section C as the dealer's box. On a private sale it is the seller's, and the buyer needs your legal name, address and county to complete it.
- Reading the certification as boilerplate. It is a criminal penalty of a felony, and the address is one of the things being sworn to.

☐ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
