Illinois · written against VSD 76 (VSD 76.3, May 2026), issued under 625 ILCS 5/3-821

A stand-in for a registration identification card you cannot find. The form says what it is for on its own face: use it when applying for title and transfer, or transfer of licence only, and you do not have a registration ID card to send in.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank VSD 76 from the Illinois Secretary of State at https://www.ilsos.gov/content/dam/publications/pdf_publications/vsd76.pdf — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Date and Current License Plate No.	Today's date and the plate number. Watch out: The plate you are keeping. This form travels with an application to put it on a different car.
2	YOU	Month and Year of Expiration	Read it off the sticker. Watch out: Month and year, both. A registration that has already expired is a separate conversation with the facility, not something this form fixes.
3	YOU	Sticker No.	The number printed on the current registration sticker. Watch out: If the sticker has gone as well as the card, say so at the counter rather than inventing a number - a replacement sticker is its own transaction.
4	YOU	Owner(s) Name and Address	Two rules for names, two for the address. Watch out: As the registration has them. This is an affirmation about a record, so it has to match the record.
5	YOU	Previous Vehicle Information	Year, make, body style, VIN, and a cc box for a motorcycle - all describing the vehicle the plates are being transferred from. Watch out: The car you sold. Writing in the new one is the single commonest way this form is filled in backwards.
6	YOU	Owner(s) Signature	Every owner on the registration signs. The affirmation above is that the information is true and correct. Watch out: Then it goes in with the VSD 190 that actually moves the plate. On its own it does nothing at all.

What gets this one rejected

- Using it as a general affidavit. The line at the foot limits it: this form should be used when a person is making application for title and transfer or transfer only of license and does not have a Registration I.D. Card to send in.
- Guessing the sticker number. It is a specific field with a specific answer and it is printed on the sticker.
- Filling in the new vehicle here. The block is headed previous vehicle information - the car the plates are coming off.
- One signature where the registration carries two names.
- Sending it instead of the registration card when you do in fact have the card.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
