Kentucky · written against TC 96-341 (05/2020), issued under KRS 186.050 and KRS 186.990

Almost certainly not the form you are looking for. Kentucky charges a buyer six per cent motor vehicle usage tax, and a seller searching for the affidavit behind that number lands here because of the word usage. This one is about how a vehicle is used, not about what was paid for it: it lets the owner of a school bus, a church's truck or a wrecker register at a reduced rate by swearing to what the vehicle will be used for over the next twelve months.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank TC 96-341 from the Kentucky Transportation Cabinet, Division of Motor Vehicle Licensing at <https://transportation.ky.gov/Organizational-Resources/Forms/TC%2096-341.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Check whether you are on the right form at all	Read the three printed categories at the top: school transport, a church's truck or bus, or a wrecker. Watch out: If none of them describes your vehicle, close it. The six per cent usage tax a buyer pays has nothing to do with this document.
2	YOU	The affiant	Your name and the address the vehicle is operated from, with the county sworn in named on the rule above. Watch out: A business files in the name it is registered under, with a person's name and role beside it, because a signature has to belong to someone.
3	YOU	The vehicle description table	Vehicle identification number, make, model number, body style and model year - all five columns. Watch out: Body style is what makes the affidavit stand up. Wrecker, bus, truck: write the thing the statute is about.
4	YOU	Sign and print	Signature of affiant and printed name of affiant, on the same rule. Watch out: You are affirming a future twelve months of use. If the vehicle is about to be sold, that is a reason not to sign rather than a technicality.
5	YOU	Swear it	The attesting official's block: date, commission number, expiry, signature and title. Watch out: The penalty provisions the form points to are in KRS 186.990, and they apply to the affirmation you just made, not to the clerk who filed it.

What gets this one rejected

- Using it as the affidavit of total consideration. That affidavit is printed on the back of the certificate of title itself and appears again on the application for title, not here.
- An ordinary car. The printed categories are a truck, a bus or a wrecker, and nothing else qualifies.
- A private vehicle a church happens to use. The statute the form quotes attaches to a truck or bus owned by the church or religious organization.
- Swearing to a use that has already stopped. The affirmation runs forward - during the next 12 months - and it is filed with the county clerk annually.
- Filing it in Frankfort. The form's own address is a post office box, but the statute has the affidavit filed with the county clerk.
- Leaving the vehicle table half filled. It asks for five things and a clerk cannot register the vehicle on four of them.
