How to fill out DPSMV 1699 — Act of Donation of a Movable

Louisiana · written against DPSMV 1699 (no revision printed), issued under Louisiana Civil Code, donation inter vivos of a corporeal movable

Giving a car away in Louisiana is a formal act, not a favour. The department's rule is short and absolute: an act of donation must be signed in the presence of two witnesses and a notary or it will not be accepted. Not a notary or two witnesses, the way an ordinary sale can be - both. This is the form, and it turns up most often at the end of an estate, when the heirs have established who owns the vehicle and one of them is passing it to another.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank DPSMV 1699 from the Louisiana Office of Motor Vehicles at <https://public.powerdms.com/LADPSC/documents/356664?f=DPSMV-1699.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Parish of	Top right of the sheet, beside State of Louisiana. Watch out: Where the act is passed. With four signatures needed in the same place at the same time, this is usually the parish of whichever notary can get everybody around one table.
2	YOU	Donor	The rule directly under the sentence that names the notary and the witnesses together. Watch out: The person giving the car away, named as the certificate of title names them. Where the vehicle came out of an estate, this is the person the heirship affidavit or the judgment of possession established as the owner.
3	BUYER	Donee	The second full-width rule. Watch out: The person receiving it, and the printed text has them accepting the donation rather than merely being named in it. They have to sign, and they have to be there.
4	YOU	VIN	The last of four boxes on the vehicle row. Watch out: Seventeen characters off the face of the certificate. The act is a transfer of one specific movable and this is what identifies it.
5	YOU	The relationship between Donor and Donee	A single rule under the vehicle row. Watch out: Write the actual relationship in plain words - mother to daughter, uncle to nephew. It is on the form because a gift between strangers invites the question of what else changed hands, and a blank invites it louder.
6	YOU	The value of the movable property donated herein is $	One box in a sentence of its own. Watch out: Not a price. A donation is not a sale and the value here is not what the donee pays - but it is still the value of the thing given, and it belongs in the act.
7	OTHER	Notary ID	The right-hand position on the notary rule at the foot, after Notary Signature and Notary Printed Name. Watch out: The number is what makes the notarisation acceptable, and this form gives it a labelled position rather than making you find room. An act missing it must be rejected however well the rest of it is done.

What gets this one rejected

- Signed in front of a notary with no witnesses, or in front of two witnesses with no notary. The act needs both and the department says so in terms.
- The donee's acceptance missing. The printed text has the donee accepting the donation, and an act signed only by the donor is an offer.
- The relationship line left blank, on a form that asks for it in its own sentence.
- Value left empty. It is not a sale price but it is still the value of what was given.
- A notary identification number missing from the line that names it.
- A donation used to move a vehicle for money. The document warrants a donation; a price paid makes it something else, and the department processes a multiple transfer when the paperwork tells two stories.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
