The mirror image of the termination, and the form that explains why a lien you thought had aged out is still on your record. A Louisiana vehicle mortgage filing runs five years. Within six months before that five-year date expires, the secured party may file this and keep it alive. For a seller it is the answer to a specific question: the loan is from 2019, why is the lender still on the title. Because somebody filed this.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank DPSMV 1902 from the Louisiana Office of Motor Vehicles at <https://public.powerdms.com/LADPSC/documents/353069?f=DPSMV-1902.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	LENDER	Debtor (Owner's Name)	First column of the table. Watch out: The registered owner, not the lender. If a continuation lands on your record under a slightly different spelling of your name, the lien is still on the vehicle and the mismatch is one more thing to unpack at the counter.
2	LENDER	Parish Mortgage Previously Filed	The last column on the right of each row. Watch out: Louisiana files mortgages parish by parish, so this names the office holding the original. It is the column most likely to be wrong on a loan that has been sold on, because the buying lender is working from a summary rather than from the filing.
3	LENDER	Name(s) of Secured Party (Lienholder)	The strip along the bottom of the sheet, under the five-row table. Watch out: This is the lender claiming the extension. Where it is not the name recorded against your vehicle, ask how the interest was assigned before you accept that the continuation is good.
4	LENDER	EIN	The middle box of the bottom strip, between the lienholder's name and the representative's signature. Watch out: A company number rather than a person's. It is the one identifier on this sheet that ties the filing to a specific legal entity rather than to a trading name that may have changed twice since the loan was written.

What gets this one rejected

- Filed outside the window. The header gives it as within six months prior to the expiration of the five year filing date, and a continuation filed late is not a continuation.
- No recordation data. The file number is what identifies the original filing this is extending.
- The date of mortgage left blank, which leaves the department unable to work out whether the filing is in time.
- Signed by the debtor. Like the termination, this is the secured party's statement and only the secured party can make it.
- One fee for a sheet listing four vehicles. The charge is per vehicle.
