The one-page notice that tells the Registry a vehicle has been destroyed. It is signed by the company doing the junking rather than by the owner, and it ends the vehicle's record permanently: a junked status means the car cannot be registered or titled again. The certificate of title goes in the same envelope.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank TTL108 from the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles at <https://www.mass.gov/doc/application-for-junking-or-scrapping-a-motor-vehicle-0/download?f=TTL108.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	OTHER	Whose form this is	The company junking or scrapping the vehicle, signing under the pains and penalties of perjury. Watch out: As the owner you supply the certificate of title and your details for section D. The signature at the foot is theirs.
2	OTHER	Section B, the yard	Name or business name, address, email and telephone. Watch out: Ask for a copy once it is completed. It is the only evidence you have that the vehicle no longer exists.
3	OTHER	Section C, the vehicle	Model year, make, model, vehicle identification number, title number and state. Watch out: Where the vehicle is old enough to be outside the title law, the registration number goes in the title number box - the form says so in the box itself.
4	YOU	Section D, where it came from	Your name or business name, address, and the date the yard took it. Watch out: Check this before it is posted. It is the entry that connects the destruction of the car to the person who owned it.
5	OTHER	Section E, the date it was scrapped	The date, then the authorised signature and printed name. Watch out: The date matters to you: it is the date after which nothing that happens to the vehicle can reasonably be yours.
6	YOU	Cancel the registration separately	Online through myRMV, or on the affidavit if two owners are named. Watch out: This form goes to the Title Division and does nothing to the registration. Until you cancel, the Registry still shows a live registration and the town still bills excise on it.

What gets this one rejected

- An owner signing section E. The signature line is labelled authorised signature, company junking the vehicle.
- Sending the form without the certificate of title.
- A missing section D. The Registry records who the vehicle came from as well as who destroyed it, and the date it changed hands.
- Using it for a car that is being sold for parts but still exists. Junked is a status meaning the vehicle is incapable of operation and has been scrapped.
- Expecting to undo it. A vehicle in junked status cannot be registered or titled again.
