How to fill out TTLREG109 — Vehicle Owner's Limited Power of Attorney

The Registry's own power of attorney, and the only one built for a vehicle transaction. It lets a named person sign the certificate of title or the supporting papers in your place, for one identified vehicle, and it dies on its own: thirty days from signature, or the moment the transaction is processed, whichever comes first.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank TTLREG109 from the Massachusetts Registry of Motor Vehicles at <https://www.mass.gov/doc/limited-power-of-attorney/download?f=TTLREG109.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Owner 1, and Owner 2 if there is one	First, middle and last name, driving licence number, issuing state, street address, city, state and ZIP. Watch out: The names have to match the front of the certificate. If the title names two people, the second owner block is not optional.
2	YOU	Skip the company block	Company name, federal identification number, address and representative - only for a vehicle owned by a business. Watch out: Leaving it blank is correct for a personally owned car, and is not the same as leaving a required section out.
3	YOU	Name the agent	The full legal name, licence number, issuing state and address of the person who will sign for you. Watch out: Give them one job. This is a limited power of attorney tied to one vehicle, and the Registry reads it that way.
4	YOU	The vehicle	Model year, make, model, vehicle identification number, title number and the state that issued the title. Watch out: The title number goes in even though the whole reason for the form may be that somebody else is holding the certificate. A title inquiry will give you the number.
5	YOU	Sign, and have the agent sign	Owner signatures and dates, then the named agent or attorney-in-fact signs and dates underneath. Watch out: The thirty days start from your signature, not from the agent's, so do not sign it weeks before anybody can use it.
6	OTHER	Two witnesses	Each witness signs, prints their name and gives their date of birth. Watch out: Use two people who are not part of the transaction. A witness who is also the agent is not a witness.

What gets this one rejected

- A section left out. All sections of this limited power of attorney form must be completed in order for it to be valid.
- A typed or stamped signature anywhere on it. All signatures must be handwritten.
- Witnesses who sign but do not print their names or give their dates of birth. The form asks for all three from each of them.
- Using it for anything other than a Registry transaction. The note at the top is that this power of attorney can only be used to perform Massachusetts RMV transactions.
- Presenting one signed more than thirty days ago. It expires on the earlier of thirty days from signature or the transaction being processed.
- Covering two vehicles on one form. There is a single vehicle block and it is not repeated.
