How to fill out PS2000A — Application to Title and Register a Vehicle

Minnesota · written against PS2000A (06/2026), issued under Minnesota Statutes 168A.02, subdivision 1

sellmycarhub.com
/forms/minnesota/ps2000a-application-to-title-and-register-a-vehicle/

The document that stands in for the back of the title, and the one every Minnesota deputy registrar keys a transfer from. It is two sides lettered A to J, and it matters to a seller because section B repeats the assignment word for word: the odometer disclosure, the damage disclosure, the seller's printed name and address, and the certification warranting title and assigning the registration tax and the vehicle to the buyer. A seller signs section B and nothing else on it.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank PS2000A from the Minnesota Driver and Vehicle Services at <https://assets.dps.mn.gov/files/dvs/dvs-ps2000a-application-to-title-register-a-vehicle.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	BUYER	Vehicle identification number	Seventeen characters across the top of section A, copied off the title rather than off the windshield. Watch out: Read it from the certificate. Seventeen characters read through glass at arm's length is where a transposed digit comes from, and a wrong one here follows the car onto its new title.
2	BUYER	Vehicle type, class and use type	Four dropdowns on one row in section A, plus number of passengers and fuel type. Watch out: Use type is a Minnesota classification with its own published definitions, and Collector, Pioneer, Classic and Street Rod all mean a vehicle not used for general transportation. Ticking one of those on a daily driver changes what may lawfully be done with it.
3	BUYER	Auto insurance company and policy number	Insurer, policy number and expiration date, on the row above the disclosure band. Watch out: This is the buyer's insurance, not yours. The certification lower down promises the vehicle is and will continue to be insured, and a policy that starts next week is not that.
4	YOU	The odometer reading	The current figure in whole miles in the section B box marked no tenths. Watch out: Read it off the dash on the day of the handover. A figure taken from a service invoice a month earlier disagrees with the car, and an odometer statement cannot be withdrawn once it is on a Minnesota record.
5	YOU	One of the three mileage statements	Actual mileage, in excess of odometer's mechanical limits, or not actual mileage with its printed discrepancy warning. Watch out: The third one puts a permanent notation on the buyer's record. It is the right answer for a replaced cluster and the wrong answer for an instrument you simply do not trust.
6	YOU	The damage disclosure	One tick against the printed 80 percent threshold: has, or has not, sustained damage in excess of that share of actual cash value. Every vehicle, no exceptions. Watch out: There is no age, weight or value exemption on this one, which is what catches sellers who have done this in another state. An honest Has on a car an insurer once wrote off costs you nothing you were going to keep.
7	YOU	Private party consignment	Yes or No, in the small pair of boxes under the mileage statements. Watch out: Consignment means somebody else sold the car for you. Two people meeting over a set of keys is not consignment, and the answer is No.
8	YOU	Seller's printed name and address	Your name printed, and your address, on the two ruled lines in the middle of section B. Watch out: Spell it as the title spells it. If the certificate says Marit K. and your licence says Marit Kirsten, the deputy registrar has to reconcile the two before anything else happens.
9	YOU	All seller's signatures	The printed rule marked X across the foot of section B, under the certification warranting title and assigning the registration tax and vehicle to the person named in section D. Watch out: Every owner named on the title signs here, and this rule is the one line on the form with no fillable box behind it - it is meant to be signed in ink after the rest is complete.
10	BUYER	Section C, security agreements	A Yes or a No, and where the answer is Yes, the first secured party, the date of loan and that lender's address. Watch out: This is about the buyer's financing, not about a lien of yours. Your lender comes off with a release before any of this; a lien is never carried forward to the next owner in Minnesota.
11	BUYER	Section D, the new owner	First, middle and last name, driver's licence number, date of birth, residence street address, and a mailing address if it differs. Watch out: Where two buyers want rights of survivorship they write OR between their names. A company never puts a personal credential number in this box.

12	BUYER	Section I, full purchase price	Line 1 of the tax declaration, copied from the price written on the certificate. Watch out: The two documents are read side by side. A price on the application that does not match the price on the title is the discrepancy a deputy registrar is trained to notice.
13	BUYER	Section I, 6.875% of line 3	The tax, worked out on the net purchase price after any trade-in allowance. Watch out: On a private sale there is no trade-in, so line 3 is the same as line 1. The only lawful way to a smaller number is a genuine exemption with its code entered beside it.
14	BUYER	Sign section J	Every purchaser signs and dates the certification, above the printed instruction not to sign until the form is completed in entirety. Watch out: There is no notary block anywhere on this form. Nobody witnesses the signature and nobody checks the boxes above it, which is why the instruction in capitals exists.

What gets this one rejected

- A missing insurance policy number. Minnesota's no-fault law puts the insurer on the application and the certification promises the vehicle is and will continue to be insured while operating upon the public streets and highways.
- The damage disclosure left blank. It is not conditional on the vehicle's age, weight or value, and a deputy registrar cannot key the transfer without it.
- Two odometer boxes ticked, or none. The three statements are alternatives, and silence is not the same as certifying actual mileage on this form.
- A second owner named in section D with no second signature. Every purchaser signs, and the form says so under the signature block in capitals.
- A dealer license number written in on a private sale. That box belongs to a licensed dealer and filling it in invites a question you cannot answer.
- Signing before the form is complete. The instruction is printed under the signature line in capitals, and a section filled in afterwards by somebody else is exactly the alteration Minnesota refuses to accept.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
