Instructions for application

Please read thoroughly.

Sections A, B, D, F and I must be completed when applying for any category of special plates.

When applying for:

- Personalized plates complete Section G. A statement that adequately explains the meaning is required.
- ARO/CB plates complete Section H. Is this the first or second set of ARO plates ordered? 1st ☐ 2nd ☐
- Volunteer Ambulance Attendant plates complete Section H.

NOTE: M.S. 144E.01 Subd. 15. Volunteer ambulance attendant.

"Volunteer ambulance attendant" means a person who provides emergency medical services for Minnesota licensed ambulance service without the expectation of remuneration and who does not depend in any way upon the provision of these services for the person's livelihood. An individual may be considered a volunteer ambulance attendant even though the individual receives an hourly stipend for each hour of actual service provided, except for hours on standby alert, or other nominal fee, and even though the hourly stipend or other nominal fee is regarded as taxable income for purposes of state or federal law, provided that the hourly stipend and other nominal fees do not exceed $6,000 annually.

- Firefighter / Retired Firefighter (Section H) plates, an authorization letter from the fire chief is required.
- Ex-POW plates, a letter of authorization signed by the Minnesota commissioner of veteran's affairs must be attached to the application for plate issuance.
- Disability plates complete standalone Application for Disability Plates (PS2904).
- Personalized Collector, Street Rod or Classic Motorcycle plates indicate the plate number of another vehicle owned or leased in your name and used for general transportation in Section C.

New personalized plates

The fee for personalized plates is $100 paid at the time of application. Personalized plates must have at least one letter but not more than seven characters total; it may not contain all numbers. Motorcycle, 1-ton pickup trucks and RV plates are limited to six characters. A vertical motorcycle plate is limited to four characters and may not utilize a hyphen. One space or hyphen may be placed between adjoining characters and are counted as a character for spacing.

Any personalized plate that may offend public morals or decency will not be issued. Personalized plates cannot duplicate other personalized plates, special plates or regular plates in a numbering system used or reserved by Driver and Vehicle Services.

Important: You must include a detailed statement that adequately explains the meaning of your license plate choice. No application without this information will be processed; a statement "I just like the phrase" is not acceptable. This explanation becomes part of the public record and will be released if a complaint is received.

The characters 1 (one) and l ("eye") and 0 (zero) and O (oh) are deemed to be the same and may not be duplicated to create new combinations (i.e. "TIM and "T1M" are the same). The naval zero Ø is only available for Amateur Radio Operator license plates.

Transfer of personalized plates

When a motor vehicle is transferred/sold, the personalized plates may be retained at the option of the current owner. The rights to the plate combination will revert to the buyer of the motor vehicle. Please submit a statement that the plates are to remain with the vehicle. Personalized plates may be transferred to a new owner without the sale of the vehicle. The current owner must provide a statement relinquishing their rights to the plate combination and the new plate owner must pay the $100 personalized plate fee.

Personalized plates may be transferred to another motor vehicle registered in your name. Complete a personalized plate application with the description of the vehicle on which the personalized plates will be displayed. You must obtain regular plates for the motor vehicle on which the personalized plates were used unless it is no longer registered in Minnesota.

If transferring the plates to a different class vehicle, (e.g., transfer from passenger class to RV class) new plates are required and combinations are limited to the number of characters allowed for that new plate type.

Retention of personalized plates (Minnesota Rules section 7403.0950)

To retain the plate combination the vehicle must keep current registration (M.S.168.12, subd. 2a). Rights may be lost if registration expires. If there is not another vehicle to transfer the personalized plates to, a letter requesting an extension (not to exceed one year) of the rights to the combination may be submitted or your rights to that combination may be lost.

Other special plates

This line in Section A exists to accommodate any special plate authorized by statute that is not represented on the form.

Transfer of special plates (excluding personalized and disability plates.)

If the vehicle on which the special plates are now being used is sold, complete this application if you wish to transfer the special plates to another vehicle. It is your responsibility to obtain replacement plates for the vehicle on which the special plates were displayed. If the registration expiration month and year changes with the new vehicle, the special plates must be adjusted.

Contribution plates

Contribution fees are in addition to any plate fee and are not refundable.

- Proud to be a Veteran: A one-time minimum contribution of $30.00 to benefit the WWII memorial fund is due with initial application. Proud to be a Veteran plate contribution is due only at the time of initial application.

Minnesota · written against PS2010 (6/2024), issued under Minnesota Statutes 168.12

The one plate form a Minnesota seller genuinely needs. Ordinary plates stay bolted to the car you sell, and the statute that says so - plates and stickers issued for a vehicle may not be transferred to another vehicle - is the same statute every special plate then exempts itself from, at $5 a time. So if you paid $100 for a personalised plate or contributed for a critical habitat one, this is the form that moves it onto your next car instead of handing it to a stranger.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank PS2010 from the Minnesota Driver and Vehicle Services at https://assets.dps.mn.gov/files/dvs/MV_SpecialPlatesApplication.pdf — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Pick one plate	One tick in section A, out of a menu that runs to several dozen. Watch out: This form covers new issues and transfers on the same sheet, so on a transfer the tick simply identifies which plate you already hold.
2	YOU	Section B, tick Transfer	The middle of New, Duplicate and Transfer, then the plate being transferred in the box beside it. Watch out: This is the tick that turns the form into the one Minnesota sellers need. New is for a plate you do not have yet; Duplicate is for one that has been lost or damaged.
3	YOU	The plate being transferred	The characters on the plate itself, in the box beside the three ticks. Watch out: Copy it off the plate, not off the registration card. On a personalised plate the spacing and hyphens are part of the combination.
4	YOU	Section C, the vehicle it is going onto	Make, year, previous plate and vehicle identification number of the car that will carry the plate. Watch out: The previous plate box here is the ordinary plate currently on that vehicle - the one the special plate will replace, and which then comes off.
5	YOU	Section D, the vehicle it came off	Make, year, previous plate and vehicle identification number of the car the plate had been used on. Watch out: The one you are selling. This is the block that gets left blank, and it is what lets the department close the plate off the old record before the buyer registers the vehicle.
6	YOU	The fee stack	Plate fee, personalization fee, plate transfer fee, contribution, state filing fee, local office surcharge, total due. Watch out: On a straight transfer most of those lines are empty. The plate transfer fee is the one that applies, and a contribution line only fills in where the plate you hold carries an annual one.
7	YOU	The fee stack	Plate transfer fee, contribution, state filing fee and local office surcharge, in the boxed stack at the top right. Watch out: A contribution plate collects its contribution again on a transfer - $30 for Critical Habitat - so the total is more than the $5 people expect.
8	YOU	Sign it	Applicant signature and date in section I, under the certification that the plates will be used only on that vehicle as long as it is in your possession. Watch out: The same certification promises to notify the department when the plates are transferred again. It is one of the few Minnesota vehicle forms whose signature line is a fillable box rather than a printed rule.
9	YOU	Do it before the buyer arrives	Not a box - the timing. The plate has to be off the sold vehicle and onto the new one while both are still yours. Watch out: In Minnesota an ordinary plate stays with the car. If the special plate is still on it when the buyer drives away, it goes with the car and the buyer's registration, and it is theirs to hand back or not.

What gets this one rejected

- Ticking Transfer and leaving section D empty. The department needs to know which vehicle the plate is coming off as well as which one it is going onto.
- Transferring a collector-class plate to an ordinary car. A personalised plate issued for a classic, pioneer, collector, street rod or classic motorcycle may not be transferred to a vehicle that is not eligible for it.
- A veteran organisation plate with no membership card. The three of them are marked on the form as requiring one.
- One personalisation choice. Three preference lines exist because the first choice is often gone, and an application with one is an application that may simply fail.
- Expecting an ordinary plate to move. It cannot. The transfer mechanism on this form exists for special plates only, and that is the whole difference between them.
- Forgetting the plate is worth money. The personalisation fee alone is $100, and it does not come back when the car is sold with the plate still on it.
- Taking the plate off and leaving the buyer with nothing. The instructions are explicit: you must obtain regular plates for the motor vehicle on which the personalized plates were used, unless it is no longer registered in Minnesota.
- Budgeting for the transfer fee alone. A contribution plate collects its contribution again when it is transferred to a new vehicle - $30 a year on a Critical Habitat plate - so the transfer costs more than the transfer fee.
