How to fill out Form 5423 — Bill of Sale For Scrap Metal Operators - Vehicles Ten Years or Older Without Title

Missouri · written against Form 5423 (Rev 09-2025), issued under RSMo 301.227

for-scrap-metal-operators/

Not your form - it is completed by the scrap metal operator - and worth understanding because it is the one legitimate route in Missouri for parting with a vehicle you have no title for. Section 301.227 lets a scrap operator take an inoperable vehicle at least ten years old without a certificate of title, on this bill of sale, and your part of it is one certification and a copy of your identification.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank Form 5423 from the Missouri Department of Revenue at <https://dor.mo.gov/forms/5423.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	DEALER	Whose form this is	The business information block at the top is the scrap metal operator's, and so is the certification band at the foot. Watch out: If a yard hands you a blank one to fill in yourself, something is wrong. The operator is certifying facts about the vehicle's condition and its lien status that only they can check.
2	DEALER	The vehicle and the date acquired	Year, make, model, vehicle identification number and the date it came from you, with a letter for the kind of vehicle. Watch out: The year is what decides whether this process is open at all. Ten years is the floor and the instructions say so in one line.
3	DEALER	Retained for parts, or destroyed	Two boxes with different consequences - resale of parts needs a salvage dealer's licence and a junk certificate. Watch out: Ask which one they are ticking. Destroyed ends the vehicle's record; retained for parts keeps it alive as a junk certificate in somebody else's name.
4	YOU	Your details	Name, street address, city, state and ZIP in the seller's information block. Watch out: They have to match your identification exactly, because a copy of it goes in with the form and a mismatch gets the whole thing returned.
5	YOU	Your certification and signature	That you have legal authority to sell or otherwise transfer your interest in the vehicle or its parts, with your printed name and the date. Watch out: This is the whole of your exposure on the form. Do not sign it for a car that is not yours to give away - a relative's, an estate's, or one you were storing for somebody.
6	YOU	Who is delivering it	The name, driver licence number and issuing state of whoever brings the vehicle in, or the word same. Watch out: The form asks for the word same in writing rather than a blank. A blank here reads as an unanswered question and the form comes back.
7	YOU	Take the plates off first	Not on this form, and easy to forget on a car that is being towed away. Watch out: The registration expires on transfer whatever the vehicle's condition, and the number stays assigned to you. A plate that leaves on a scrapped car is a plate on somebody else's record.

What gets this one rejected

- A vehicle that is not old enough. Printed in the instructions: you may not use this process for vehicles less than ten years old.
- A vehicle that still runs. The operator's certification describes an inoperable vehicle in a rusted, wrecked, discarded, worn out, extensively damaged, dismantled, and mechanically inoperative condition.
- A missing copy of the seller's identification. The name on the driver license, nondriver license or state issued identification card must match the name of the vehicle seller identified on this bill of sale.
- A recorded lien nobody checked. For vehicles under twenty years old the operator has to search the Department's online record system first, and it is their responsibility to ensure the lien has been satisfied.
- An incomplete form. If any of the information is incomplete or inaccurate, it will be returned to you for correcting.
- Treating it as a substitute for a duplicate title on a car you intend to sell to a person. It is a route to a scrapyard, and the vehicle does not come back from it.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
