How to fill out BA-49 — Application for Vehicle Registration

sellmycarhub.com

New Jersey · written against BA-49 (R10/25), issued under N.J.S.A. 39:3-4, with the commercial declarations under N.J.A.C. 13:60

</forms/new-jersey/ba-49-vehicle-registration-application/>

The buyer's form, and the reason it belongs on a seller's site is that it is the one they will arrive without. New Jersey will not put the title through without it, and a buyer who has to go home for a policy number is a buyer who will phone you about it. Its own footer prints the code BA-49E; the Commission calls it BA-49 everywhere else.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank BA-49 from the New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission at <https://www.nj.gov/mvc/pdf/vehicles/BA-49.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	BUYER	Name and address of the new owner	The buyer's name, street address, phone, city, state, zip - and the county, which is its own box and is not optional. Watch out: Write clearly. The form's first line of instruction is that an application that cannot be read will be rejected, and this is the block where that happens.
2	BUYER	Driver licence number, gender, eye colour, date of birth	The New Jersey licence number or corpcode, then three descriptive boxes the Commission uses to match the applicant to its own record. Watch out: Eye colour catches people out on a vehicle form. It is there because the registration is tied to a person, not to the car.
3	BUYER	Transaction type	Initial for a car just bought. The other six are Renewal, Duplicate, Transfer, Replacement Plates, Code Change and Increase or Decrease in registration weight. Watch out: Transfer here means moving an existing registration, which is a different thing from the title transfer. Buying a car from a private seller is an Initial.
4	BUYER	Plate number and prefix	Left empty on a first registration - the plates are issued at the counter. Filled in only where plates are being moved from another vehicle in the same name. Watch out: The seller's plates never go here. They can be transferred to another vehicle, but not to another owner.
5	BUYER	Vehicle identification number	Straight off the assigned certificate. Watch out: This and the title application have to agree with each other and with the car. Three places, one number.
6	BUYER	Insurance company and policy number	A New Jersey policy, in force, on this vehicle. The line under it is in capitals for a reason: liability cover in the minimum amount required by law, from a company authorised to write it in New Jersey. Watch out: This is the single most common reason a buyer gets sent home. Tell them to sort cover before the appointment, not after they have the plates.
7	BUYER	The five questions	Rental use; commercial use as the form defines it; a revoked or suspended registration privilege in any state; a federal tax identification number for a trade or company name; an agricultural certificate number. Watch out: Question three asks about any state, not just New Jersey. A suspension left behind somewhere else will surface here.
8	BUYER	Signature and date	The applicant certifies the statements on the application are correct. A commercial applicant also declares knowledge of and compliance with the federal motor carrier safety regulations adopted in N.J.A.C. 13:60. Watch out: Misstatements may result in suspension of registration or driving privileges - that is the form's own warning, printed under the signature line.

What gets this one rejected

- Illegible handwriting. The instruction at the top of the form is one sentence long: please write clearly or your application will be rejected.
- An insurance policy that is not New Jersey coverage. The form requires a company authorised to write liability insurance in New Jersey, in the minimum amount required by law.
- Trying to change a trade or company name on it. The note in the margin says a trade or company name change cannot be made at a motor vehicle agency.
- Answering the commercial question carelessly. Ticking yes pulls in the registration code, weight and passenger boxes and a declaration about the federal motor carrier safety regulations; ticking no when the vehicle really is commercial is a false certification.
- Turning up without an appointment. The line under the title tells the applicant to make one online before coming into an agency.
- Leaving the county blank. It is a separate box from the city, and it is used.
