Ohio will not move a title into or out of a minor's name on the minor's signature alone. This is the consent of a parent, guardian or other person having custody, for a minor to acquire or dispose of a motor vehicle in the minor's name - notarised, naming the child and the car, and surrendered with the title. It is needed on both sides of a sale: the BMV asks for it whether the minor is the seller or the buyer.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank BMV 3751 from the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles at <https://dam.assets.ohio.gov/image/upload/publicsafety.ohio.gov/bmv3751.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	County	State of Ohio is already printed; the county where the consent is being sworn goes on the rule beside it. Watch out: The county here and the county in the notary block are the same one - it is where the signing happens, not where the car is.
2	YOU	I, _____	The adult's name: the parent, guardian or other person having custody. Watch out: The adult is the one certifying, and the certification is about their own relationship to the child. Getting the two names the wrong way round is the single commonest error on this form.
3	YOU	having custody of _____, a minor	The minor's name, then their date of birth in the box to the right. Watch out: The date of birth box carries its own printed slashes. Write the three parts into the spaces between them rather than over the top.
4	YOU	The vehicle	Year, manufacturer's serial number, make, model and body type. Watch out: Manufacturer's serial number means the vehicle identification number. It is the same seventeen characters as everywhere else, under an older name.
5	YOU	The adult's signature	One signature line, for the parent, guardian or other person having custody. Watch out: Signed in front of whoever is taking the acknowledgement, and no earlier. There is no second line, so a second parent does not sign here.
6	YOU	The notary block	The officer fills the whole thing in: the day and month, the year after the printed 20, the county, the state, the seal, their own signature and the date their commission runs out. Watch out: This is the route almost everyone takes. The block below it is only for a signature taken in front of a licensed motor vehicle dealer.
7	DEALER	For licensed motor vehicle dealer only	A dealer, employee or agent signs and dates to acknowledge that reasonable diligence was used in ascertaining the minor's age and the adult's identity. Watch out: If that block is signed, the notary block above it is not needed - and the reverse is also true. One or the other, never both.

What gets this one rejected

- The minor's own signature in the consent block. The person certifying is the adult; the minor is the person named in the second blank.
- A guardian without the court document. The Clerk of Courts Association's guidance is that a guardian must provide the court document showing they are the legal guardian of the minor.
- A form completed but not notarised, where no dealer is involved. The dealer exception at the foot is exactly that - an exception for a signature taken in front of a licensed dealer.
- Leaving the date of birth blank. The whole document turns on the fact that the person named is a minor, and the date of birth is what establishes it.
- Assuming it travels with the child rather than with the car. The vehicle is described on the form, and a different car means a different consent.

☐ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
