How to fill out BMV 3772 — Application for Dealer Assignment

sellmycarhub.com

</forms/ohio/bmv-3772-application-for-dealer-assignment/>

Ohio · written against BMV 3772 (12/25), issued under Ohio Revised Code 4505.032 and 4517

Not your form, but the one you sign when you sell or trade to an Ohio dealership and the title is electronic. It is three documents in one: a power of attorney appointing the dealer to execute the assignment, an attestation of mileage and identity, and the dealer's own application for a certificate of title. The seller's part is a single block at the very bottom.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank BMV 3772 from the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles at <https://dam.assets.ohio.gov/image/upload/publicsafety.ohio.gov/bmv3772.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	DEALER	Who the transferee is	The dealership's printed name and address, beside the date the vehicle was delivered and the price. Watch out: If that block names a person rather than a business, you are on the wrong form - a private sale of an electronic title is BMV 3770.
2	YOU	Current titled owner and identification	Your name as the title holds it, the state that issued your photo identification and the number from it. Watch out: The dealer is attesting to your identity as well as to the mileage. Expect them to want the licence in hand, not the number read out.
3	DEALER	The vehicle and its current title type	Control number, year, make, model, body type, title number and the vehicle identification number, with a tick for Regular, Salvage or Off Road. Watch out: Regular is only correct if the car has never been branded. A salvage or off-road history that gets ticked as Regular is a misstatement on a document you have also signed.
4	YOU	The odometer row	Six boxes for the reading, NO TENTHS MILES, and two exception statements underneath. Watch out: This is your certification even though the dealer is holding the pen. Read the digits back before the form leaves the desk.
5	YOU	The attorney-in-fact sentence	You appoint the named dealer to execute any and all application for assignment of certificate of title for the vehicle, attest to the odometer reading, and warrant the title to be free of all liens. Watch out: Three separate promises in one sentence, and the third is the one to think about. If a lender was ever on this title, check the discharge and cancellation are both recorded before you warrant anything.
6	YOU	The transferor block	Your printed name, your signature and your address, at the very foot of the page. Watch out: That is the end of your involvement, and it is worth photographing the completed form before it goes into the dealership's file - Ohio gives a private seller no notice of sale to keep as a record.

What gets this one rejected

- A private buyer's name in the transferee block. This form exists for a transfer to or from a licensed motor vehicle or watercraft dealer, and it says so in its own opening paragraph.
- Signing the power of attorney line before the dealer's name is written into it. An attorney-in-fact appointment with the name left blank is a signed blank cheque over your title.
- A dealer permit number missing. The clerk is being asked to accept a dealer's application, and the permit number is how it is identified as one.
- Treating it as a bill of sale. It transfers ownership and applies for a title; it is not a receipt, and it does not record what you were paid unless the price block is completed.
- Using it for a private sale between two individuals. That is BMV 3770, and the two forms are not interchangeable.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.

Read off BMV 3772 (12/25) and the Ohio Bureau of Motor Vehicles's own pages, current as of 2026-08-23. Plain-language help with a form, not legal advice — where this and the agency differ, the agency governs. sellmycarhub.com
