The fallback where a private sale produced no paperwork about the money. Oklahoma works its excise tax out from the actual sales price, so a transfer arriving without a purchase contract or a bill of sale has nothing to calculate from - and this affidavit, sworn before a notary, supplies it. Read carefully, it is not the seller's form at all: the affiant certifies that they are the assigned owner of the vehicle, and swears they were unable to obtain a contract or bill of sale from the seller.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank 722-1 from the Service Oklahoma, Motor Vehicle Services at <https://oklahoma.gov/content/dam/service-oklahoma/Documents/mv-forms/2023/722-1%20Declaration%20of%20Vehicle%20Purchase%20Price%20R01-2023.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	BUYER	Year, Make and Vehicle Identification Number	The vehicle being declared, on the two rules under the opening certification. Watch out: Copy the identification number from the assignment or the 718, not from the vehicle. This affidavit only works if it can be matched to the transfer it belongs to.
2	BUYER	On (date), I purchased the above vehicle from	The date of the sale and the name of the person who sold it. Watch out: The date has to be the date of sale used everywhere else in the packet. Two dates for one handover is exactly the sort of thing a licensed operator notices.
3	BUYER	Therefore, I hereby declare a total purchase price of $	The amount actually paid, excluding any trade-in credit. Watch out: This is sworn, and it is the number excise tax is calculated on. If the vehicle was a genuine gift between qualifying family members, the family affidavit is the right route and this one is not.
4	BUYER	Affiant, Date, Daytime Phone Number and Email Address	Signature, date and contact details for the person swearing to it. Watch out: Sign in front of the notary and not before. The contact fields exist so Service Oklahoma can come back to the affiant, so give a number that will be answered.
5	OTHER	The notary block	The day, month and year of the swearing, the commission expiry, the notary's signature and the seal. Watch out: This is the part that makes the declaration mean anything. A photocopied or pre-stamped block is not a notarisation.

What gets this one rejected

- A seller filling it in. The affiant certifies to being the assigned owner of the vehicle, which after a sale is the buyer.
- Filing it when a bill of sale does exist. The sworn statement is that none was prepared and none can be obtained, and one of those has to be true.
- A price that is not what was paid. This is the figure the excise tax is calculated on and it is sworn, so a convenient number is a false affidavit rather than a favour.
- Trade-in arithmetic. The printed words are excluding credit for any trade in, so the figure is the price of this vehicle and nothing else.
- No notary. The form has an acknowledgment block and a seal box and is worthless without both filled in.
- Treating it as proof of ownership. Its own opening line says completion of this form does not convey ownership.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
