How to fill out 753 — Affidavit of Vehicle Ownership

sellmycarhub.com

Oklahoma · written against 753 (Rev 07/2026), issued under 47 O.S. 1105 and 4-108

</forms/oklahoma/753-affidavit-of-vehicle-ownership/>

The last resort where a vehicle was handed over with no usable ownership document and the person who handed it over cannot be found. The affidavit swears that the vehicle was granted and conveyed to you on a stated date by a named person, and that you are unable to contact that individual to secure proper ownership documentation. It runs on supporting evidence rather than on the affidavit alone, and it stops the moment any owner or lien record turns up anywhere.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank 753 from the Service Oklahoma, Motor Vehicle Services at <https://oklahoma.gov/content/dam/service-oklahoma/Documents/mv-forms/2023/753%20Affidavit%20of%20Vehicle%20Ownership%20R01-2023.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	BUYER	I (printed name), of (city), Oklahoma	The affiant and their city, in the opening sentence, with a phone number and email in the same line. Watch out: Give contact details that will be answered. This affidavit goes to a research division that may need to come back to you before anything is issued.
2	BUYER	on or about the __ day of __, 20__, by (name) of (city/state)	When the vehicle was conveyed and who conveyed it. Watch out: On or about is doing real work in that phrase. An approximate date honestly given is better than a precise one invented.
3	BUYER	Year, Make, Model, Vin	The vehicle table. Watch out: The identification number is what the research division searches on. Photograph it from the vehicle and check it character by character.
4	BUYER	The odometer band	A reading, and one of three descriptions marked on the rule beside it - actual, not actual, or exceeds mechanical limits. Watch out: Only if the vehicle is model year 2011 or newer. The heading over the band says so, and marking it on an older vehicle invites a question nobody needs asked.
5	BUYER	The last state, plate, decal and date	Where the vehicle was last registered and under what plate and decal. Watch out: If you genuinely do not know, say so rather than guessing. The affidavit is sworn and a wrong plate number is a wrong sworn statement.
6	BUYER	Signature of Applicant and Printed Name	Signed and printed, under the fine-and-imprisonment warning, then sworn before a notary. Watch out: You are also signing the indemnity above it, which undertakes to defend the title against any and all claims. That obligation outlives the transaction.
7	BUYER	Then assemble page two before sending anything	The vehicle information request, the letter of no record or proof the request was made, and proof of purchase with the seller's notarised signature. Watch out: The order matters. Sending the affidavit first and the search afterwards means starting again.

What gets this one rejected

- Filed before the record has been searched. Page two puts the vehicle information request first in the sequence and makes it a precondition.
- Proof of purchase without a notarised seller's signature. That is one of the four things page two requires of it, and it is the one most bills of sale are missing.
- A date of sale taken from the notary stamp. Page two says the date of sale, in brackets, not the notary date.
- Filed when a record does exist. If an owner or lien filing record is discovered in Oklahoma or any other state, titling by ownership affidavit is not allowed and the applicant must obtain proper documentation or seek court direction.
- An odometer line left blank on a 2011-or-newer vehicle. The block on this sheet has its own heading naming exactly which vehicles it applies to.
- Signed without reading the indemnity. It is an undertaking to defend the title against all claims, which is a real obligation and not a formality.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
