Oklahoma · written against 780-B (Rev 01/2023), issued under 47 O.S. 1105(P)

This is an insurance company's form and not a seller's, and it is here because a seller whose car has been written off will hear about it. When an insurer has settled a total loss and cannot get the endorsed ownership document out of the insured within thirty days, it may ask Service Oklahoma for the salvage title anyway - on this affidavit, signed under penalty of perjury, after at least two written attempts to obtain the certificate. The second page is the more useful half for an owner: it is where Oklahoma sets out how damage percentages decide what kind of title a wrecked vehicle gets.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank 780-B from the Service Oklahoma, Motor Vehicle Services at <https://oklahoma.gov/content/dam/service-oklahoma/Documents/mv-forms/2023/780-B%20Unobtainable%20Ownership%20Documentation%20Affidavit%20R01-2023.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	AGENT	Name of Insurance Company and FEIN	The insurer applying for the salvage title, with its federal identifier. Watch out: If you are the owner reading this, the name in that box is the one to telephone. The affidavit only exists because two letters from them went unanswered.
2	AGENT	Year, Make, Model, VIN, Oklahoma Title Number, Insured Owner's Name	The vehicle and the record it is being applied against. Watch out: The insured owner's name in that last box is the person the certificate was issued to - so a mismatch here is worth challenging.
3	AGENT	Date of Total Loss Settlement Acceptance	When the insured accepted the settlement, with a thirty-day wait running from it. Watch out: That date is the start of the clock. An owner who wants to keep the vehicle, or to hand the title over on their own terms, has those thirty days to act.
4	AGENT	Date of 1st and 2nd Written Attempt	Two dated attempts to obtain the ownership documentation, with photocopies attached. Watch out: These are the letters. If you never received them, the addresses they were sent to are the thing to ask about.
5	AGENT	The affirmation, signature and notary block	Signed under penalty of perjury by an authorised representative and sworn before a notary. Watch out: Nothing on page one is the owner's to sign, and an owner asked to sign it is being asked for the wrong document.
6	OTHER	Read page two even though you are not filling it in	The damage percentage bands, the insurer's separate duty to notify the owner and Service Oklahoma, and the exclusion of cosmetic damage. Watch out: Sixty to seventy-nine per cent is salvage and eighty or more is junked. That single boundary decides whether the vehicle can ever be retitled for the road.

What gets this one rejected

- An owner filing it. Every field belongs to the insurance company and the signature is that of an authorized insurance company representative.
- Filed before thirty days have elapsed since the insured accepted the settlement. The waiting period is printed against the settlement date box.
- Fewer than two written attempts, or attempts without photocopies. Both dates and both copies are required.
- A cosmetic damage figure. The note on page two excludes damage unrelated to road-worthiness from the computation, with hail given as the example.
- An unsworn signature. It is signed under penalty of perjury and notarised.
