

Form 794
Revised 01/2023
MVC

Service Oklahoma - Motor Vehicle Service

Family Affidavit

Important Notice Regarding This Affidavit

Pursuant to 68 OS Sec. 2103, an excise tax exemption applies to transfers of vehicle/boat/outboard motor ownership between Husband and Wife, or Parent/Step Parent and Child/Step Child, when such transfers are made without consideration (i.e., purchase or exchange for anything of value). The intent of this Affidavit is to confirm those qualifying conditions.

If the vehicle/boat/outboard motor was purchased, or exchanged for anything of value, the referenced exemption does not apply and this affidavit is NOT to be completed.

Only the registered owner of the vehicle being transferred, as indicated on the certificate of title, may complete this form. Affidavits submitted without supporting documentation will not be accepted. False or fraudulent information on this affidavit may result in revocation of the certificate of title in addition to civil or criminal penalties as permitted by law.

If you are not the owner of the vehicle, this affidavit is NOT to be completed.

This affidavit may NOT be used in conjunction with the Affidavit for Transfer of Ownership Following Loss of Assigned Oklahoma Title Form 777.

One page that removes the excise tax from a vehicle given to close family. It applies to transfers between husband and wife, or between a parent or step-parent and a child or step-child, and only where the vehicle is genuinely gifted - the form's own warning is that if the vehicle was purchased, or exchanged for anything of value, the referenced exemption does not apply and this affidavit is NOT to be completed. It is sworn before a notary and it may only be completed by the registered owner.

This sheet is not the form. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	State of Oklahoma, County of	The county where the affidavit is being sworn. Watch out: The county here and the county in the notary block should match, because they are describing the same event.
2	YOU	Model Year, Make, and OK Title or VIN/Serial Number	The vehicle being given away. Watch out: Either identifier is accepted, but the title number is the one that ties the affidavit to a specific record rather than to a specific vehicle.
3	YOU	I (transferor) hereby affirm that I am the registered owner	Your name written into the affirmation. Watch out: The registered owner means the person the certificate of title names. A spouse who is not on the title cannot make this affirmation for the one who is.
4	YOU	is being transferred without consideration to	The name of the person receiving the vehicle. Watch out: Without consideration is the whole test. A dollar changing hands to make it look like a sale is exactly the thing that voids the exemption.
5	YOU	who is my: Husband, Wife, Parent/Step Parent, Child/Step Child	One tick, and only one. Watch out: Four boxes and no others. If the relationship is not one of these four, the transfer is taxable and this sheet does not help.
6	YOU	Signature of Record Owner, and the notary block	Your signature, sworn in front of a notary public with a seal. Watch out: Take the certificate of title with you. The affirmation you are swearing to says you have provided it.

What gets this one rejected

- Any relationship other than the four printed. Siblings and grandparents are outside it, and Service Oklahoma names both as examples of who does not qualify.
- A sale dressed as a gift. Without consideration means nothing of value changed hands, and the form warns that false or fraudulent information may result in revocation of the certificate of title in addition to civil or criminal penalties.
- Anyone but the registered owner completing it. The form says twice that if you are not the owner of the vehicle, this affidavit is NOT to be completed.
- Filing it without the title. The affirmation says in support of it the owner has provided the certificate of title for the vehicle.
- Using it alongside the lost-assigned-title affidavit. The form states that it may NOT be used in conjunction with the affidavit for transfer of ownership following loss of an assigned Oklahoma title.
