One page for the estate nobody opened. It is used where no executor or administrator has been appointed to administer the estate in the name of the deceased, the applicant is related to the decedent, and a death certificate is available. What is sworn is narrow and precise: that the deceased left no estate necessitating administration, that no letters of administration or letters testamentary have been issued to any person, that the vehicle was not bequeathed to anyone by will, and that no person living would have prior right.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank 798 from the Service Oklahoma, Motor Vehicle Services at <https://oklahoma.gov/content/dam/service-oklahoma/Documents/mv-forms/2023/798%20No%20Administrator%20Affidavit%20R01-2023.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	OTHER	STATE OF OKLAHOMA, COUNTY OF	The county where the affidavit is sworn. Watch out: It should be the same county as the notary block at the foot, because they describe one event.
2	OTHER	The affiant's name, in the opening sentence	Whoever is swearing, printed into the rule after being first duly sworn. Watch out: This has to be a relative. The form's own note says the applicant must be related to the decedent, with no exceptions offered.
3	OTHER	The registered owner, the make, the body style and the VIN	The deceased and the vehicle, across two rules with the labels printed underneath. Watch out: The labels sit below the lines rather than beside them, which is how body style and identification number end up transposed. Read downwards before writing.
4	OTHER	died on the ___ day of __, __	The date of death, in three boxes. Watch out: It has to match the death certificate exactly. That document is going in with the affidavit and a clerk will read both.
5	OTHER	that the undersigned is the ___ of the deceased	The relationship - daughter, son, widow, brother. Watch out: Plain words. This is the field a licensed operator reads first, because it decides whether the affidavit is available at all.
6	OTHER	AFFIANT, ADDRESS, CITY, STATE, ZIP	The three closing rules, then the notary block. Watch out: Take the death certificate and photographic identification to the notary. The affidavit alone is not enough to move anything.

What gets this one rejected

- An affiant who is not related to the decedent. The form's own note requires the applicant to be related, and a friend or a creditor is outside it.
- An estate that has been opened. If letters of administration or letters testamentary have issued to anybody, this affidavit is not available and the court documents are used instead.
- A vehicle that was left to somebody by will. The affirmation includes that the vehicle has not been by will bequeathed to anyone, which sends the case to the small estate route or to probate.
- Filed without a death certificate. The note at the head of the form makes it required supporting documentation.
- Signed where somebody living has a better claim. The affiant swears that no person living would have prior right, which is a statement about the whole family and not just about the affiant.
- An unsworn signature. Like almost every Oklahoma title affidavit, it needs the notary block completed.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
