LATE TITLE TRANSFER FEE EXEMPTION CERTIFICATION

(Only complete one half of this form.)

Oregon law requires that the title (or its equivalent) be submitted to DMV for transfer within 30 days from the date you buy a vehicle. If you do not submit the title in 30 days, DMV must charge you a late title transfer fee. The fee is $25 when the title is presented on the 31st through the 60th day after the date of purchase. The fee increases to a maximum of $50 on the 61st day after the date of purchase. Late title transfer fees may be waived due to one of the following:

- You did not have possession of the title (or its equivalent) to submit to DMV, for reasons beyond your control, or
- You were mentally or physically incapacitated following the purchase of the vehicle preventing you from submitting the title to DMV.

Once you have possession of the title or are no longer incapacitated, you must submit it to DMV within 30 days.

I CERTIFY THAT THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS TRUE AND CORRECT

I purchased this vehicle on 08 14 2026 (MONTH) (DAY) (YEAR). I came into possession of the title (or its equivalent) on 10 02 2026 (MONTH) (DAY) (YEAR).

Failure to deliver the title within 30 days was beyond my control because: (DMV may ask you to provide proof of this).

The seller's credit union held the certificate until the loan payoff cleared on 29 September 2026 and posted it to me on 1 October. I applied within a week of receiving it.

How to fill out 735-6775 — Certification of Vehicle Date of Purchase

Oregon · written against 735-6775 (1-26), issued under ORS 803.070 and the late title transfer fee in ORS 803.045 </forms/oregon/735-6775-certification-of-vehicle-date-of-purchase/>

One sheet carrying two different certifications, with a printed warning to complete only one half of it. The top half fixes the date of purchase where the documents disagree or where none of them says. The bottom half asks DMV to waive the late title transfer fee — $25 from the thirty-first day and $50 from the sixty-first — on one of exactly two grounds. It is the form for the sale that went right and the paperwork that went slowly, and it is worth knowing about before the letter arrives rather than after.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank 735-6775 from the Oregon Department of Transportation, Driver and Motor Vehicle Services Division at <https://www.oregon.gov/odot/Forms/DMV/6775fill.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	BUYER	I purchased this vehicle on	Month, day and year, on the waiver half of the sheet. Watch out: This is the date on the reassignment block of the certificate. If it does not match, you are in the top half of the form rather than the bottom.
2	BUYER	I came into possession of the title (or its equivalent) on	The second date, in the same month-day-year boxes. Watch out: The gap between these two dates is the whole argument. If it is under thirty days there is nothing to waive.
3	BUYER	You did not have possession of the title, for reasons beyond your control	The first of two tick boxes. Watch out: The commonest true version of this is a lender who took weeks to release and post the certificate. Keep the covering letter — it is the proof DMV may ask for.
4	BUYER	You were mentally or physically incapacitated following the purchase	The second box. Watch out: It comes with a condition attached in the same paragraph: once you are no longer incapacitated you must submit the title within 30 days.
5	BUYER	Failure to deliver the title within 30 days was beyond my control because	Two ruled lines to explain it in your own words. Watch out: Write dates, not feelings. A line naming who held the title, when you asked for it and when it arrived is a line a clerk can act on.
6	BUYER	Vehicle description	Plate number, year, make, body style and vehicle identification number, on the same half you are using. Watch out: Each half of this form carries its own vehicle block, so fill in the one belonging to the half you have ticked and leave the other empty.
7	OTHER	The top half — date of purchase, plate number, VIN	A separate certification for the case where documents disagree about the purchase date, or where no document states it at all. Watch out: Untouched here on purpose. Completing both halves is the single thing this form's printed instructions tell you not to do.
8	BUYER	Name, signature and date	Printed name, a signature on the X, and the date. Watch out: It is a sworn statement made in support of an application for title. Certifying the truth of a statement you know is not true is a Class A misdemeanour under ORS 803.070.

What gets this one rejected

- Both halves completed. The instruction is printed twice on the sheet, once above each half: only complete one half of this form.
- A waiver asked for on a ground the form does not offer. Oregon names two — you did not have the title, for reasons beyond your control, or you were incapacitated — and being busy is neither.
- The explanation line left empty on the waiver half, which is the half of it DMV actually reads.
- A waiver claimed on the basis of not having possession, where the title was in fact delivered on the day of sale. The two dates on the form are there to be compared.
- Filed on its own. Both halves are certifications made in support of an application for title, and neither does anything without one behind it.
