How to fill out MV-27 — Dealer Assignment Covering a Vehicle Acquired and Held for Resale

Pennsylvania · written against MV-27 (3-25), issued under 75 Pa.C.S. 1113

sellmycarhub.com
/forms/pennsylvania/mv-27-dealer-assignment/

Not your form, but you may be handed it. When a Pennsylvania dealer buys a car to resell rather than to keep, Section 1113 lets them notify the department instead of titling it - and this is that notification. The first assignment block on it is signed by the original title holder, which on a trade-in or a straight sale to a dealership means you.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank MV-27 from the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation at <https://www.pa.gov/content/dam/copapwp-pagov/en/penndot/documents/public/dvspubsforms/bmv/bmv-forms/mv-27.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	DEALER	Section A, the vehicle	Original title holder's name, the PA title number, VIN, model year, make and body type. Watch out: Read the name on that first line before anything else. If it is yours, this is a form you are about to sign, not one you are just watching.
2	YOU	First assignment, the odometer	The reading in a row of boxes with no tenths, plus a box for mileage in excess of mechanical limits and one for a reading that is not the actual mileage. Watch out: The warning printed beside it is federal: failure to complete it or providing a false statement may result in fines and imprisonment. It applies to a trade-in exactly as it applies to a private sale.
3	YOU	First assignment, free of encumbrance	A printed certification that the vehicle is free of any encumbrance and that ownership passes to the named dealer. Watch out: If a lender is still recorded against the car, this sentence is not true yet. Get the lien satisfied before you sign, not after.
4	DEALER	First assignment, the acquiring dealer	The dealership's name, identification number, street address, city, state and ZIP, written into your assignment block. Watch out: Check it is filled in before you sign. An assignment to a blank dealer is the same open assignment the Vehicle Code forbids on a certificate.
5	YOU	The self-certification	Day, month, year, county and country, then your printed name and signature and a co-seller's if the car was in two names. Watch out: It is an unsworn declaration under 18 Pa.C.S. 4904, carrying prosecution and a fine of at least $1,000. A dealer's paperwork does not make it less binding on you.
6	DEALER	The dealer's acquisition line	The acquiring dealer signs to certify they hold the vehicle for resale, and dates the acquisition. Watch out: That date starts the dealer's seven days to notify PennDOT. Nothing about it moves the record out of your name - only a later title application does that.

What gets this one rejected

- Treating it as a substitute for the certificate. It is a notification of acquisition, not a proof of ownership, and it travels with the assigned title rather than instead of it.
- Using it more than the statute allows. Notification in lieu of applying for a certificate of title may not be used in excess of three consecutive transactions, and a transferee must apply for a certificate no later than six months from the date of the assignment.
- Certifying a car is free of encumbrance when a lender is still on the record. That sentence sits directly above your signature.
- Signing it as a private buyer. Only a registered Pennsylvania dealer can complete the acquiring line.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
