South Carolina Title number 812440936177105 was issued with an odometer reading of 8,461 (☒ Actual, ☐ Exceeds, ☐ Exempt, ☐ Not Actual.)

Please correct the odometer reading on the title as follows. 84,610 miles (☒ Actual, ☐ Exceeds, ☐ Exempt, ☐ Not Actual)

The incorrect reading was put on the title because:

A digit was dropped when the assignment was keyed: the reading certified at the sale was 84,610 miles, not 8,461.

(Use extra sheets as needed)

IMPORTANT NOTE: Original documents must be provided to prove to the Department's satisfaction that the odometer reading printed on the title was incorrect and that the new mileage accurately records the odometer reading on the original date of application. The lack of documentation will likely result in the Department's inability to change the title. Documentation over one year old will not be accepted.

The following documents should be submitted, if available.

- A series of repair or oil change records (at least 2 in the last 12 month) that show the vehicle mileage.
- Statements from previous owners certifying mileage of the vehicle cannot be used to certify the actual mileage of the vehicle and will require an indication of "Warning – not actual mileage" be added to the title.

Please note that not all odometer corrections will indicate an odometer legend of "ACTUAL MILEAGE". If the request for correction does not prove to the department's satisfaction that an error was made, the title will be marked "WARNING – NOT ACTUAL MILEAGE".

Requests for odometer corrections made because of Department error will be corrected and may be requested at any DMV Branch office.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I am the owner or acting on behalf of the owner and request that a corrected South Carolina Certificate of Title be issued. I further certify that the information on this request is correct to the best of my knowledge.

For a mileage figure that is already printed on an issued South Carolina certificate. TEA-1 fixes an assignment before it becomes a title; this fixes the title. It is a documented request rather than a declaration - the Department's own warning is that original documents must prove to its satisfaction that the printed reading was wrong, and without them the correction will probably not be made.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank TI-008 from the South Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles at <https://dmv.sc.gov/sites/scdmv/files/media/Forms/TI-008.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Name of person requesting change	Your name, both addresses, a daytime phone, and the vehicle's VIN, year, make and model. Watch out: The perjury declaration further down says you are the owner or acting on behalf of the owner, so this is not a form a previous owner can file about a car they have sold.
2	YOU	The reading the title was issued with	The number as it appears on the certificate now, plus which of the four boxes - actual, exceeds, exempt, not actual - it carries. Watch out: Copy it exactly, wrong digits and all. This line is the Department finding the record, not the place to start correcting it.
3	YOU	Please correct the odometer reading as follows	The true reading in whole miles, and the brand it should carry. Watch out: The reading here has to be the reading on the original date of application, not today's. The Department's note asks for documentation proving the new mileage accurately records that reading.
4	YOU	The incorrect reading was put on the title because	Two ruled lines, and extra sheets if they are needed. Watch out: Be specific and be dull. A dropped digit, a figure read off a trip meter, a transposition - a clerk is looking for an explanation that accounts for the exact difference between the two numbers.
5	YOU	Gather the records first	At least two repair or oil change records from the last twelve months showing the mileage. Watch out: Two invoices, both dated, both showing miles. A workshop's computer system will usually reprint them, and that phone call is worth more to this application than anything written on the form.
6	YOU	Sign under the perjury declaration	One signature and one date, certifying you are the owner or acting for the owner and that the information is correct. Watch out: No notary. The second signature rule underneath belongs to the SCDMV employee accepting the application and is left alone.
7	YOU	Post it with four things	The $15.00 title fee, the incorrect title, this form and the supporting documentation, to the Title Section at PO Box 1498, Blythewood, SC 29016-0024. Watch out: The incorrect certificate goes in the envelope. There is no way to hold on to it while a corrected one is produced, because the corrected one replaces it.

What gets this one rejected

- Nothing attached. The Department's stated position is that a lack of documentation will likely result in its inability to change the title.
- Records more than a year old. The note says documentation over one year old will not be accepted, in the same paragraph.
- Only one service record. It asks for a series, at least two in the last twelve months.
- A letter from the previous owner as the evidence. Statements from previous owners cannot be used to certify actual mileage and produce a not-actual brand instead of a clean correction.
- A corrected reading lower than the one on the record. The SCDMV's own training is that the odometer can never decrease.
- The incorrect title kept back. It is item two on the list of what goes in the envelope, and the corrected certificate replaces it.
