How to fill out RV-F1315201 — Application for Noting of Lien, Duplicate Title, or Multipurpose Use

The Department's general-purpose application, and the one a seller reaches for when the certificate has gone missing. A hundred and seven boxes across seven bands, of which an owner replacing a lost title fills in about fifteen: who they are, which vehicle, which title number, and one tick from six describing what happened to the paper. Everything else on the sheet belongs to a lender, a lessee, a dealer or the clerk.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank RV-F1315201 from the Tennessee Department of Revenue at <https://www.tn.gov/content/dam/tn/revenue/documents/forms/titlereg/f1315201-fill-in.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	The title number	New or current title number, top left. It is the number of the certificate you are replacing. Watch out: If you do not have it, the county clerk can look the record up from the vehicle identification number - but bring the VIN written down rather than a photograph of the windscreen.
2	YOU	Owner information, in the record's own order	Last name, first name, middle initial, in three separate boxes, exactly as the title holds them. Watch out: The legal status box beside it is 1 for AND and 2 for OR, and it describes what is already on the certificate. It is not a choice you get to make now.
3	YOU	County of residence	Your county, on the line marked CNTY OF RESIDENCE/PRINCIPAL BUS OR INCORP LOCATION. Watch out: The Department's rule is to use the clerk of the county where you live. Filing in the county where the car happens to be parked is how an application ends up in the wrong office.
4	YOU	Vehicle information	Vehicle identification number, make, model, year and body, copied off the record rather than off the car. Watch out: Body is the clerk's abbreviation - 4D, 2D, UT, PK - not a word you choose. Take it from the old certificate or from the registration.
5	YOU	Current mileage and the odometer indicator	The reading, and one digit beside it from a printed list: 0 actual, 3 not actual, 1 over ten years or 16,000 pounds, 9 in excess of mechanical limits. Watch out: The indicator is a brand, and it goes onto the replacement certificate. Copy forward whatever the old title carried rather than restarting the question.
6	YOU	One tick in the duplicate row	Lost, stolen, mutilated, returned due to non delivery, altered or illegible. Watch out: Altered and illegible both come with a condition: the heading says to submit the illegible or altered certificate with the application. If you have the ruined title, it goes in the envelope.
7	YOU	Sign under the perjury line	The signature of the certifier or owner, with the date beside it. There is a separate line for an attorney-in-fact. Watch out: No notary is involved here either. If somebody else is signing for you, they sign the power-of-attorney line and an RV-F1311401 goes in with the form.

What gets this one rejected

- No tick in the duplicate row. Six reasons are printed and the application is not a duplicate application until one of them is chosen.
- Altered or illegible ticked with nothing enclosed. The heading itself says to submit the illegible or altered certificate of title with the form.
- A duplicate requested by an owner while a lien is still noted. Where a lien remains, the request has to come from the lienholder and the new title goes to the first lienholder on record.
- A missing county of residence. It sets the clerk, and on a title-and-registration transaction it sets the local tax rate.
- The wrong odometer indicator. It is one digit from a printed list of four, and it carries the brand on to the new certificate.
- A signature in a name the record does not hold. Where the title reads one name and your identification reads another, a General Affidavit reconciling them goes in with this.
