How to fill out ENF-SAL-221 — Disclosure of Salvage Motor Vehicle

</forms/texas/enf-sal-221-salvage-disclosure/>

Texas · written against ENF-SAL-221 (Rev 08/16), issued under Texas Transportation Code 501.0925

The acknowledgement a buyer signs when they take on a salvage-titled vehicle. It is on this list because it is the seller who has to put it in front of them - and because it is one page that prevents an argument later.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank ENF-SAL-221 from the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles at https://www.txdmv.gov/sites/default/files/form_files/ENF-SAL-221.pdf — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Year and make	Two short lines at the top identifying the vehicle. Watch out: This is all the vehicle description the form asks for - there is no model, body style or plate. Fill it before the buyer arrives so the conversation is about the car rather than the paperwork.
2	YOU	VIN	The vehicle identification number, on its own line. Watch out: Copy it from the salvage title, then check it against the car. A disclosure attached to the wrong VIN protects nobody.
3	BUYER	Printed name of purchaser	The buyer writes their own name into the sentence that begins the acknowledgement. Watch out: The sentence is first person - I acknowledge that at the time of purchase, I am aware that the motor vehicle is titled on a salvage title. It is their statement, so it is their handwriting.
4	YOU	The flood damage box	Ticked only where the vehicle is classified as a salvage motor vehicle based solely on flood damage. Watch out: Solely is doing real work in that sentence. A car that was flooded and then also wrecked is not a flood-only salvage, and ticking the box anyway misdescribes it.
5	BUYER	Purchaser's signature and date	The buyer signs and dates, acknowledging what they have read above it. Watch out: What they are signing includes the sentence that matters most to both of you: they may not drive this salvage motor vehicle on a public highway until after a title branded rebuilt salvage and registration have been issued. Somebody driving it away from your kerb is doing what this form told them not to.

What gets this one rejected

- Signing it yourself. Every line on it belongs to the buyer.
- Skipping the flood box on a flood car. Flood history is exactly what a buyer later says they were not told.
- Handing over a salvage vehicle without it. The disclosure is the record that they knew.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
