How to fill out Form 130-U — Application for Texas Title and/or Registration

sellmycarhub.com

Texas · written against Form 130-U (Rev 05/26), issued under Texas Transportation Code 501.0234 and Tax Code 152

</forms/texas/form-130-u-application-for-texas-title/>

The form the whole Texas transfer runs on. The buyer files it at a county tax assessor-collector's office with the signed title, and it does three jobs at once: applies for the title, transfers the registration, and computes the motor vehicle sales tax.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank Form 130-U from the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles at https://www.txdmv.gov/sites/default/files/form_files/Form-130-U.pdf — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	BUYER	Applying for	Four boxes across the head of the form. A private purchase the buyer intends to drive is Title & Registration. Watch out: Title Only is the box for a vehicle whose registration is being given up, not for an ordinary sale. Nontitle Registration is narrower still.
2	BUYER	Boxes 1 to 7, the vehicle	VIN, year, make, body style, model and the two colour boxes, copied off the assigned title rather than off the car. Watch out: Body style is the department's abbreviation, not a word - PK for a pickup. Getting it wrong is one of the commonest reasons a county hands the form back.
3	YOU	Boxes 9 and 10, the mileage	Odometer reading with no tenths, and three boxes: Not Actual, Exceeds Mechanical Limits, Exempt. Watch out: The reading and the brand both come from what you disclosed when you assigned the title. If the two documents disagree, the county believes neither.
4	BUYER	Boxes 13 to 15, applicant type and ID	Individual, business, government, trust or non-profit, then a photo ID number or an FEIN, and which of the listed identification types it came from. Watch out: A buyer who arrives at the county office without the identification named in box 15 is turned away, however complete the rest of the package is.
5	BUYER	Boxes 16 to 18, the buyer	Legal first, middle and last name with any suffix, a second applicant if the vehicle is going into two names, and the mailing address. Watch out: Legal name as it reads on the identification in box 15. A nickname on this line and a full name on the licence is a mismatch a clerk has to resolve.
6	BUYER	Box 19, county of residence	The county the buyer legally lives in, which is what the department reads to set the title application fee. Watch out: It is not necessarily the county where the paperwork is filed, and it is not your county either. Ask the buyer rather than guessing from the address.
7	YOU	Box 20, previous owner	Your name or entity name, city and state, as they appear on the title you assigned. Watch out: City and state only. There is no room for a street address here and adding one helps nobody.
8	BUYER	Boxes 30 to 34, liens	Additional liens, an electronic title request, the certified lienholder identification number, the first lien date, and the first lienholder's name and address. Watch out: Where there is no lender at all, box 34 wants the word NONE written in it. A blank box reads as an unanswered question rather than as an answer.
9	BUYER	Box 38, sales and use tax	The sales price, any trade-in deduction, the taxable amount, and 6.25% of it. Watch out: The flat alternatives run down the right-hand column, and the $10 gift tax is the one people reach for wrongly - it needs Comptroller Form 14-317 and a qualifying relationship, not simply a low price.
10	BUYER	The title application fee box	A tick box printed on the face of the form as $28 or $33 Application Fee for Texas Title. Watch out: Which of the two applies is a county question - the form itself says to contact your county tax assessor-collector for the correct fee.
11	YOU	Signature of seller, donor or trader	The first of the three certification rows: your signature, your printed name and the date. Watch out: This is the one signature in the Texas set that may be reproduced or faxed. The buyer's may not, and the form says so in the same paragraph.
12	BUYER	Signature of applicant or owner	The buyer signs, prints and dates the second row; a third row waits for a second owner. Watch out: Original ink from the buyer, and then the whole package has to reach a county office. The certification above these rows is the third-degree-felony line.

What gets this one rejected

- A photocopied buyer signature. The form is explicit: an application may be reproduced or faxed, and the seller's signature may be reproduced or faxed, but a completed form must contain the original signature of the buyer.
- No photo ID. Every title application must include one of the government-issued IDs listed in box 15.
- Leaving the county of residence blank. It is what decides whether the fee is $28 or $33.
- Filing it anywhere but a county tax assessor-collector's office. Texas does not have a state DMV counter for this.
- Guessing at the tax. The Comptroller, not the TxDMV, answers questions about motor vehicle sales tax - the form prints the number.
- Treating the certification as boilerplate. It reads: State law makes falsifying information a third degree felony.
