Facts and Indemnification Agreement

Explain why the vehicle/vessel registration is to be canceled:

Sold privately on 11 August 2026 to Tomas E. Ballesteros of 655 E Center St, Spanish Fork, UT 84660. He has the endorsed certificate of title, the registration card and a signed bill of sale. The licence plate X92 4KD was not included in the sale: I took it off the vehicle on the day and posted it to the Division for destruction on 13 August 2026. Please cancel the registration from the date of sale.

Date of sale (if applicable): 08/11/2026

Warning - Application fraud is a felony under Utah Law.

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that this statement is true, correct, and complete. I agree that I am solely responsible for any liability that may result from the cancellation, that the Tax Commission and its agents do not share any responsibility, and that I will pay the cost of any connected legal action.

How to fill out TC-502 — Application to Cancel Registration

Utah · written against TC-502 (Rev 4/26), issued under Utah Code 41-1a-701

sellmycarhub.com
/forms/utah/tc502-application-to-cancel-registration/

The paper version of telling the Division your car is gone. Its own name is about cancelling a registration, but the Division lists it as one of the ways to report a vehicle as sold: a written notification carrying the vehicle year, make, plate or identification number and the owner's signature - or this form in place of writing your own letter. It is a single page with one free-text box in the middle asking a question no other Utah form asks: explain why the vehicle or vessel registration is to be canceled.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank TC-502 from the Utah State Tax Commission, Motor Vehicle Division at <https://files.tax.utah.gov/tax/forms/current/tc-502.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Owner Information	Every owner on the record, with the addresses the Division holds. Watch out: The instruction is that it must match the motor vehicle record. If you have moved, put the current address in the mailing line rather than replacing the one the record shows.
2	YOU	Vehicle Information	Year, make, model and identification number. Watch out: The plate number is not one of the boxes, so the identification number is what ties this to the record. Copy it carefully.
3	YOU	The explanation	Why the registration should be cancelled - sold, scrapped, exported, destroyed or stolen. Watch out: Write a sentence, not a word. Who took the car, on what date, and what happened to the plate turns a bare cancellation into a record you can point at later.
4	YOU	Date of sale	The date the vehicle stopped being yours. Watch out: This is the date that matters if the car is later photographed by a camera or towed from a street. Make sure it matches the bill of sale.
5	YOU	Signature	One signature under the perjury declaration and the indemnity. Watch out: Keep a copy and note the date you sent it. The form is the only one of the three reporting routes that leaves you holding evidence.

What gets this one rejected

- Details that do not match the record. Both blocks carry the same instruction, and a nickname or a new address that the Division has not been told about is enough to stop it.
- An empty explanation box. The Division is being asked to end a live registration and the reason is the whole basis for doing it.
- A sale reported with no date of sale. The box is marked if applicable because the form covers scrapping and export as well, but on a sold vehicle it applies.
- Signed by somebody who is not on the record. The certification is the registered owner's to make.
- Filed instead of dealing with the plate. Cancelling the registration does not put the plate in the post, and the twenty-day obligation to return it or reassign it is separate.
- Used in the belief that it transfers the vehicle. It ends a registration. Ownership moves on the certificate of title or on a signed duplicate title application, and nowhere else.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
