How to fill out VSA 5 — Odometer Disclosure Statement

Virginia · written against VSA 5 (07/01/2021), issued under Va. Code 46.2-629 and 49 U.S.C. 32701 </forms/virginia/vsa5-odometer-disclosure-statement/>

The form most Virginia sellers reach for and almost none of them need. Directly under its own title, in bold, it prints the condition: do not use this form if a title exists for this vehicle. A Virginia certificate already carries the mileage disclosure inside Section A, so this stands in only where there is no certificate to write on - a vehicle DMV has never titled, or one being titled here for the first time on other proof of ownership.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank VSA 5 from the Virginia Department of Motor Vehicles at <https://www.dmv.virginia.gov/sites/default/files/forms/vsa5.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Vehicle information	The full VIN, then make, body type, model and year. Watch out: With no certificate to copy from, this comes off the vehicle itself. Photograph the VIN plate before you write it down.
2	YOU	The odometer reading	Whole miles into the box at the top right of the seller's block. Watch out: No tenths. Round nothing - write what the instrument shows, with the decimal digit left off.
3	YOU	One tick of four	Actual mileage, in excess of mechanical limits, not the actual mileage, or exempt in a prior state of title. Watch out: Actual mileage is a positive claim, not a default. If the instrument is broken, the third box is the honest answer and it is better made now than argued about later.
4	YOU	Seller certification	Printed name, signature, date, then street address, city, state and ZIP. Watch out: The address is asked for because this form may be the only record of who made the disclosure. A car with no title has no other paper trail.
5	BUYER	Buyer certification	The buyer prints, signs, dates and gives their own address, acknowledging that they received a copy. Watch out: Give them the copy at the same time. The certification is about receipt, and signing for something you were not handed is how disputes start.

What gets this one rejected

- Using it alongside a Virginia certificate. The bold line under the title rules it out, and a disclosure in two places invites the two to disagree.
- Ticking more than one of the four statements. The heading is check one box only.
- Recording tenths of a mile. The odometer box says no tenths and a decimal in it is a reading DMV cannot record.
- Leaving the buyer's block empty. The buyer is certifying that they received a copy, and without that signature the form has only done half its job.
- Reaching for the exempt-in-prior-state tick without the out-of-state title. The line itself requires the applicant to present it.

☒ Amber is what you write ☐ Grey is a block somebody else completes The filled-in example is at the start of this sheet.
