A vehicle will be considered "used" if the following two requirements have been met: 1) The vehicle has been titled to a bona fide retail purchaser/lessee for a period of 90 days or more; and 2) The vehicle has been operated (driven) to the extent that its odometer registers 3,000 miles or more.

However, the requirements of 1) and 2) noted above will NOT apply if a bona fide retail purchaser/lessee sells, trades, or otherwise disposes of the vehicle prior to its having met the above requirements. This affidavit must be signed and notarized to document such an exemption.

</forms/washington/430-501-bona-fide-used-vehicle-sale-affidavit/>

The form for the seller nobody plans to be: somebody parting with a car they bought new only weeks ago. Washington treats a vehicle as used only once it has been titled to a retail purchaser for 90 days or more and driven 3,000 miles or more. Sell before both of those are true and the vehicle is legally still new - unless you sign this affidavit, which is the exemption.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank 430-501 from the Washington State Department of Licensing at <https://dol.wa.gov/sites/default/files/forms/430501.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Make, model and identification number	Three boxes describing the vehicle you bought new and are now parting with. Watch out: Take them from the certificate rather than the sales invoice - the certificate is what the department will compare this against.
2	YOU	Licence number and where it was issued	The plate on the vehicle, and the state or country that issued it. Watch out: On an imported vehicle this is the line that shows the department which of the two signers the affidavit is coming from.
3	YOU	Consumer or importer	Your name, as the person who bought the vehicle new at retail. Watch out: The importer number beside it stays empty. It belongs to the other kind of signer, and filling it in describes you as somebody you are not.
4	YOU	The address block	Address, city, state, postcode and country on one line. Watch out: The country box is not optional padding - it is there because half the cases this form covers involve a vehicle brought into the country.
5	YOU	Date, place and signature	The declaration under penalty of perjury, then the date and place signed, then the signature. Watch out: The line asks you to print the completed form and sign it. Sign in front of the notary or the licensing agent, not before you get there.
6	YOU	The notarisation block	State, county, the date, the signature and the printed or stamped name of the notary or agent, with their title and number. Watch out: As everywhere else in the Washington set, an agent at a licensing office can certify instead of a notary, and it costs nothing to have it done there.

What gets this one rejected

- Signing it as somebody who was not the retail buyer. The form is to be signed by a bona fide retail purchaser/lessee or, in the case of an imported vehicle, the importer.
- An unwitnessed signature. It is an affidavit and it carries a notarisation block.
- Using it to argue that a vehicle is used when it plainly is not - it does not make a vehicle used, it records that the person who bought it new has parted with it early.
- A missing licence state on an imported vehicle, which is the case the form was drafted around.
- Signing on behalf of a company without showing the title of the person signing.
