Wisconsin · written against MV2300 (7/2024), issued under Wis. Stat. ss. 342.14(3), 342.14(3m), 342.17(4)(b) and 867.03

/forms/wisconsin/mv2300-statement-of-transfer-surviving-family-member/

Two pages that move a vehicle out of a dead person's name without probate, and a grid of twenty relationship boxes that decides whether the transfer fee is charged at all. Wisconsin waives the title fee and the replacement title fee for a long list of relatives and charges the full amount for anybody else - and it makes the person signing personally liable in ways the form spells out.

This sheet is not the form. Download the blank MV2300 from the Wisconsin Department of Transportation, Division of Motor Vehicles at <https://wisconsindot.gov/Documents/formdocs/mv2300.pdf> — always take the current revision from the agency rather than a copy. Print this and keep it beside you while you complete theirs.

Every line, in the order you meet it

1	YOU	Section A, the vehicle	Year, make, model, colour and a seventeen-cell VIN comb across the top of the page. Watch out: Take all five from the certificate rather than from the registration. The title is the document the department is going to reissue.
2	YOU	Maximum Vehicle Value	What the vehicle is worth, in the box beside the decedent's name. Watch out: It is not the sale price and there is no sale here. Where the signer is not a spouse, the whole route depends on the estate staying under the $50,000 ceiling in s. 867.03.
3	YOU	Name of Decedent and Date of Death	Two boxes on the same row, and the anchor for everything below. Watch out: The name has to match the title. If the decedent's name on the certificate is a maiden name or an initial, use that and expect to explain it.
4	YOU	To myself, or to someone else	Two ticks with different consequences: who submits the MV1, and whether an MV2488 odometer statement is also needed. Watch out: To someone else means the new owner files, not you. If you are the executor arranging a sale, that is the box - and you are not the one paying the fee.
5	YOU	Section B, the surviving family member or heir	Their name, a fourteen-cell Wisconsin driver licence comb, and their address. Watch out: The address here is where the new title is posted. It is worth being sure of it before you send the form rather than filing a correction afterwards.
6	YOU	My relationship to the decedent	Twenty boxes in a grid, plus None of the above (Heir) underneath them. Watch out: This single tick decides the fee and the plates. Spouse of grandchild is on the list; a nephew is not, and would be ticking None of the above.
7	YOU	Section C	The whole of Section B again, for a second new owner. Watch out: Leave it blank if there is only one. Three or more owners need a second copy of the form, which the instructions say in terms.
8	YOU	The two declarations and the signature	A spouse or domestic partner accepts personal liability for the decedent's debts to the value of the vehicle; everybody else declares the estate is under $50,000. Watch out: They are different statements and you sign under the one that fits. Read both before signing - a surviving spouse is agreeing to something a sibling is not.

- What gets this one rejected
- Sending it without the certificate of title and an MV1. The instructions ask for the Wisconsin certificate of title, the MV1, the fees and a lien release if applicable.
 - More than two new owners on one sheet. The form says to submit additional MV2300 forms as needed.
 - Ticking a relationship the signer does not have. The fee waiver depends on it and the declaration is signed under the penalties in ch. 342.
 - Assuming a lost title needs no application. The replacement title fee is waived for qualifying family members, but the MV2119 itself is still required.
 - Using it where the estate is being probated and a court has appointed somebody. This is the no-probate route; the personal representative has a different one.
 - Forgetting that the plates follow the relationship. An heir who is not a qualifying family member cannot transfer the decedent's plates unless another owner qualifies, or the plate type stays with the vehicle anyway.
